BRITAIN'S PREMIER CARRIES HIS POINT IN HYTHE MEETING

Persuades M. Millerand Into Delaying Aid for Poland Until Results of Minsk Negotiations Are Made Known—Blockade and Munitions to Wait Until Then.

GERMAN AID FOR BOLSHEVIKI TO MEAN FURTHER OCCUPATION

HYTHE, Aug. 9.—The Hythe conference, hurriedly called Sunday to consider means to save Poland from the Bolsheviki menace, ended today with an agreement between Premier Lloyd George and Premier Millerand. on the aid to be given Poland.

After the Premiers decided to reimpose the blockade on Russia, and to furnish munitions and technical advice to Poland, Lloyd George got M. Millerand to withhold application of aid until after preliminary results of the conference at Minsk between Bolsheviki and Polish representatives are known.

M. Millerand, who had urged the French policy, which included the blockade and strong defensive measures, was obliged to yield somewhat to the milder policy of the British Premier, who was determined that no Allied troops should be used in Poland.

Establishment of a defensive line in Poland, considered by the conference, if carried out, would, according to opinion here, be regarded by the British and French as more than a plan to aid Poland; it would be in effect a cordon sanitaire to keep the Bolsheviki from Western Europe. But, from what happened at the closing of the conference, it is considered that much will depend on the Bolsheviki attitude at Minsk.

Apparently Too Late

It was made clear at the conference that the Allies, having established Poland by the peace treaty, intend to stand by her in every way short of declaring war.

The influence of the Polish crisis on Germany and the treaty of Versailles were discussed, and it is understood that should there be any indication of German co-operation with the Bolsheviki Germany will be warned that further occupation of German territory will follow.

The desire of Mr. Lloyd George for a peaceful settlement of the Russo-Polish controversy was the reason for the unexpected prolongation of the conference. It is believed M. Millerand wanted a stronger policy applied immediately. It is admitted in unofficial quarters, however, that if the present plans are carried out the situation may be described as "a sort of war."

American participation in the assistance to be given to Poland was not discussed. Allied plans were drawn on the assumption that the United States would not assist. Washington dispatches saying President Wilson was keenly interested in Poland were not taken notice of officially, though unofficially hope was expressed in British circles that the United States will participate in the Allied efforts to exclude Bolshevism from Western Europe should such effort become necessary.

If the Bolsheviki guarantee Poland's integrity and promise not to establish a Bolshevik regime in that country, the Allied plans adopted today may not be enforced. Meanwhile the Russian mission will be allowed to remain in London, as Mr. Lloyd George wishes to be directly informed of the proceedings of the Minsk conference, and prefers to deal personally with the Russian agents. The Premier will give Parliament a full statement of the situation tomorrow.

It was emphasized today in British and French circles that no new war had been planned, and that Mr. Lloyd George insisted on this point through the conference.

British Cabinet Meeting

LONDON, Aug. 9.—Premier Lloyd George presided over a Cabinet Council on his return tonight from the Lympne conference and reported the result of the conference with Premier Millerand, of France, and discussed its bearing in connection with the statement he is to make to Parliament tomorrow.

Scandinavians Watch

COPENHAGEN, Aug. 9.—The Danish, Norwegian and Swedish Prime Ministers are to meet shortly in Stockholm to discuss the political situation created by the Russo-Polish situation.

LABOR MAN ELECTED IN SOUTH NORFOLK

LONDON, Aug. 9.—The result of the South Norfolk election consequent on the succession of Mr. Cozens Hardy, the late member, to the peerage, resulted as follows:

Edwards, Labor, 8,594.

Batty, Coalition-Liberal, 6,476.

Roberts, Independent-Liberal, 2,113.

Fifty-seven per cent of the electorate voted. Mr. Edwards was largely identified with the agricultural laborers' organization, which is very strong in the constituency. He previously represented Lincoln in Parliament.

FOREST FIRE RAGES ALONG PELLY RIVER

DAWSON, Aug. 9.—Millions of feet of timber has been destroyed by a forest fire which swept along both banks of the Pelly River for a distance of one hundred and sixty miles, according to reports reaching here.

Two hundred men concentrated at Ross River Post and managed to save the post buildings, but otherwise were unable to stop the progress of the flames.

The season has been unusually dry, and the river is so low that the steamer Thistle is stalled near Ross River.

WANT LOCAL LABOR TO BUILD BRIDGE

Although several members voiced approval of the sentiment it expressed, the City Council last night ruled out of order a letter from the Victoria branch of the Grand Army of United Veterans, urging "in the strongest possible terms" that when the contract for the Johnson Street bridge is drawn up, a clause be inserted making it imperative that preference in the matter of employment be given to returned men, and that a reasonable percentage of such be always on the payroll. The letter was signed by the secretary of the branch, but no name was given.

"I don't believe in going outside the city for labor to build the bridge, and I don't think the city should give the contract to any firm, whether local or foreign, that would do that," said Ald. Fullerton. "I remember reading a strong editorial in The Colonist a few days ago and it was absolutely right."

BOARD WILL HEAR RATE CASE TODAY

Chairman Carvell Announces That Unnecessary Adjournments Will Be Avoided—Western Men Go to Ottawa

OTTAWA, Aug. 9.—Hearing of the application of the Canadian railways for a general increase of 40 per cent in railway rates is expected to go full speed ahead before the Railway Board on Tuesday. Hon. Frank Carvell, the chief commissioner, has announced that only absolutely necessary adjournments, such as may be necessary for the inspection of documents and other exhibits, will be permitted. He also states that it is still the intention of the Board to hold sittings at Ottawa only, the question involved being one of principal and not involving the question of local rates.

There will be present a great array of legal talent when the hearing commences on Tuesday morning. F. H. Phippen, K. C., will appear for the Railway Association of Canada, from which the application for increased rates came. It is likely, however, that the individual railways will also be represented, and, in that case, E. P. Flintoft will appear for the C.P.R., A. Chisholm, K.C., for the Grand Trunk; W. F. Torrance for the Michigan Central and Alastair Fraser for the Canadian National.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 9.—Premier T. C. Norris left on Saturday for Ottawa to attend the freight-rate hearing opening there before the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada.

Western men who will attend include H. G. Symington, K. C., representing Manitoba and Saskatchewan, W. B. Coyne, K. C., and P. G. Denison, the Winnipeg Board of Trade; D. A. Clarke and A. J. Sutton.

The Calgary Board of Trade is officially represented by this group, according to W. Milner, of the local Board of Trade, who stated that Calgary was sending no separate delegates.

Hungarian Boycott Ended

BUDAPEST, Aug. 9.—The boycott instituted against Hungary several weeks ago by transport workers of surrounding countries has ended. Communication with all countries has been resumed.

Leave Burning Schooner

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 9.—The master and crew of the American schooner Netherton abandoned their vessel, after it caught fire at sea, and were brought to Liverpool today on the trawler Margaret Duncan, which picked them up.

GENERAL WRANGEL CLAIMS SUCCESS

PARIS, Aug. 9. — General Baron Wrangel, the anti-Bolsheviki commander in South Russia, has telegraphed the Russian Embassy in Paris, under date of August 5, that the second attempt of the Bolsheviki to stop development of his offensive "ended in complete disaster for them."

BANDIT VILLA GETS CHEERS OF POPULACE

SAN PEDRO, Mexico, Aug. 9.—Francisco Villa marched into San Pedro Monday night between the lines of a cheering populace, which greeted him with cheers of "Viva Villa." Behind him came his band of faithful followers, who, with their leader, surrendered to the De La Huerta government under terms agreed on recently at Sabite.

As he drew up before the main plaza of the Mexican town, a cheering throng of 3,000 gathered around him, the chieftain indicating that he was about to speak to them.

"I surrendered," he said, "because further fighting in Mexico meant intervention by the United States.

"They call me a bandit. They call me the worst man in Mexico, but I would preserve our nationality by avoiding intervention."

NEW TRAFFIC LAW AGAIN APPROVED

Creation of Zone in Which Parking Is Forbidden Ratified—Anti-Scooter Regulations Also Sanctioned

The new traffic regulations, introduced in the City Council two weeks ago, were put through their third reading last night and now await final passage. Despite objection raised on a few minor points by certain aldermen, and the declaration of Ald. Albion Johns that the whole thing was a farce, the by-law was not severely amended.

The only clauses struck out last night were those forbidding vehicles to overtake and pass at street intersections, and granting pedestrians the right of way at street intersections and crossings.

The "white safety" regulations, providing for prohibition of roller skates, skidmobiles, pushmobiles, scooters, coasters, velocipedes or other "coasting device" on the city streets, were again approved, notwithstanding the assertion of Ald. Todd that they belonged to the curfew law category and were absurd.

Creation of a downtown zone where vehicles may not be parked was approved. This zone is bounded by Fort Street between Douglas and Government, Broad Street between Fort and Broughton, Yates Street between Douglas and Government, Yates Street between Broad and Government. Under the new by-law, vehicles may only be parked in the business district close to and parallel to the curb and at a distance of not less than ten feet from each other. No vehicle will be permitted to stand on the near side of the street in front of any theatre, church at time of service, fire hall or the City Market. Vehicles in turning around must do so only at street intersections, under the new code.

Wheat Crop Estimate

WINNIPEG, Aug. 9.—Canada's wheat fields will yield from 226,000,000 to 250,000,000 bushels this year. This estimate was made today by W. A. Black, vice-president and managing director of the Ogilvie Milling Company, and is based on crop reports received by the company from its agents. Compared with last year's yield, this is an increase of 50,000,000 to 75,000,000 bushels.

NEW IRISH BILL IS ASSENTED TO

Passes Quickly Through House of Lords and Becomes Law —Mr. Carlisle Causes Small Sensation by Remark

LONDON, Aug. 9.—Royal assent was given to the Irish Crimes Bill today after the House of Lords passed the second reading of the measure without a division.

The staid House of Lords was treated to a mild sensation as the Lord Chancellor resumed his seat after moving the second reading of the restoration of order in Ireland bill. Alexander M. Carlisle, a Belfast Irishman, now a resident of London, who last Saturday said an offer to arrange a meeting between the Sinn Fein and Premier Lloyd George had been made to the Premier, was standing behind the rail at the steps of the throne.

"If you pass this bill you may kill England, not Ireland," he said. No reply was made to him and he left.

According to The Standard, the Dail Eireann, Irish Republican party Parliament, authorized de Valera to send his diplomatic missions to the Russian Soviet and to various governments of Europe and the United States, and appointed de Valera, James O'Mara and Bishop Fogarty, of Khialoo, trustees of the Dail Eireann.

LABOR WORKS FOR RUSSIANS

British Workingmen Organize Movement and Hold Many Meetings to Protest Against Help for Poland

MANY WISH TO SEE COUNTRY CRUSHED

Independent Liberals Join—German Organizations Plan to Prevent Carriage of Men and Arms Through Germany

LONDON, Aug. 9.—War between the Allies and Soviet Russia over Poland would be "an intolerable crime against humanity," and British labor has warned the British Government that organized labor would be used to defeat such a war. This decision was reached today at a meeting of leaders of British labor.

It was resolved to "take such steps as may be necessary to carry the decision into effect."

"A committee of action," appointed, will see Premier Lloyd George tomorrow. The conference is regarded as having presented an ultimatum to the Government threatening direct action.

British workingmen held meetings in many manufacturing towns yesterday, notably at Liverpool, Glasgow, Manchester, Nottingham and London, and protested against a war to help Poland. A feature of the London meeting was the presence of several representatives of organizations of former soldiers.

A general strike in all the principal organized industries was advocated in resolutions adopted.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—Independent Liberals met in the House of Commons tonight and passed a resolution protesting against intervention against Russia by way of a blockade, men, money or munitions.

BERLIN, Aug. 9.—While Germany professes not to be alarmed over the possibility that the Entente may decide to violate Germany's neutrality by forcing the transit of troops across her territory to Poland, German organized labor is less optimistic. For the first time, the four organizations which represent the proletariat, have united in a common proclamation to workers, calling on them to refuse to facilitate transportation of men, arms and supplies intended for the Polish military relief.

These organizations are the General Federation of Labor Unions, the Majority Socialists, the Independent Socialists and the Communists, the latter being commonly known as the Spartacist League. The call sets forth rumors indicating that the Entente is massing troops along the Rhine, and says:

"If they succeed in conveying them to the Russo-Polish theatre of war Germany will eventually become a battleground."

MR. ROOSEVELT SUPPORTS TREATY

In Speech of Acceptance Declares League of Nations Is Practical Solution—Will Aid in Securing Peace

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Aug. 9.—Before several thousand persons, who stood nearly two hours under a sweltering sun, Franklin D. Roosevelt formally accepted the Democratic nomination for Vice-President today and urged ratification of the Peace Treaty, "which, to make it a real treaty for a real peace, must include a league of nations."

"The League of Nations," he asserted, "is a practical solution of a practical situation. It is no more perfect than our original constitution, which has been amended eighteen times, and will soon, we hope, be amended the nineteenth, was perfect. It is not anti-national; it is anti-war.

"Through it we may throw our moral force and our potential power into the scale of peace. That such an object should be contrary to American policy is unthinkable. But if there be any citizen who has honest fears that it may be perverted from its plain intent to conflict with our established form of government, it will become necessary to declare to him and to other nations that the constitution is supreme."

DR. CHARLES DOHERTY IS REPORTED DYING

TORONTO, Aug. 9.—Hon. Manning Doherty, Minister of Agriculture, received information tonight that his brother, Col. Charles E. Doherty, who has been ill at his home in New Westminster for some time past, is dying.

Hon. Mr. Doherty is arranging his business here and will go to the coast to his brother's bedside within the next few days. Col. Charles E. Doherty has been superintendent of the asylum in British Columbia for the last sixteen years.

Promoter of Egg Production

OTTAWA, Aug. 9.—John Ross Higgins, of Kemptville, Ont., has been appointed by the Civil Service Commission promoter of egg production, Department of Agriculture, for the Province of Alberta.

BATTLE TO DECIDE WARSAW'S DESTINY IS JUST BEGINNING

Poles Are Stated to Be Strongly Entrenched in Triangle of Bug and Narew Rivers—Later Dispatch, However, Reports That French Observers Believe City Will Fall

GREATEST DANGER EXISTS IN NORTH

Bolsheviki Reaching Warsaw-Danzig Railway and Cutting Off Access to Baltic—Loyalty of Polish Forces Said to be Undermined by Bolshevist Propaganda

PARIS, Aug. 9.—The battle to decide Warsaw's fate has not really begun, according to the latest news, but both sides are preparing for the struggle.

General Haller's new army occupies a strongly entrenched position in the fork between the Narew and the Bug rivers, where an army is able to block the approach upon Warsaw of a numerically superior enemy, as was demonstrated in the Napoleonic campaign of 1807.

Military observers believe the principal danger for the Poles is the advance on the Prussian frontier, because it would force them to extend their front westward when they need to keep their armies concentrated on Warsaw. The Poles have been able to ignore this advance as merely a demonstration, but it is considered likely that the Red staff will avoid battle in the fork until stronger forces can be pushed toward Mlawa.

Heavy fighting continues on the eighty-mile front along the middle Bug. North of Brest-Litovsk the Russians have obtained a footing on the left bank of the river. To the south the Poles command both banks of the river.

BERLIN, Aug. 9.—A special dispatch from Marienwerder to The Morgenpost today says the arrival of Soviet cavalry patrols at Chorzele presages a possible Russian invasion of former German territory ceded by the peace treaty. The eastern outlet of the Polish corridor to Danzig, it points out, is only half a day's march distant. Poles are reported to be digging trenches at the point indicated, which is only about nine miles from Soldau and the Warsaw-Danzig railroad.

The correspondent urges that the occupation by the Bolsheviki of Przasnysz, which might easily have been defended, indicates that the Polish troops are fast succumbing to Bolsheviki propaganda, and that discipline is no longer prevailing.

Protest to Germany

PARIS, Aug. 9.—The Entente has delivered Germany a note protesting against interference with Entente trains en route to Upper Silesia, says a message from Berlin. The note points out that such proceedings are contrary to the treaty.

Danzig Corridor Endangered

BERLIN, Aug. 9.—Private advices from Danzig predict that Great Britain will in all probability be forced to proclaim a state of siege over the territory of the free city should the soviet army threaten to enter the Polish corridor.

The fact that large stores belonging to Poland are held in the harbor is believed to furnish the Bolsheviki with the pretext for the advance.

An American business man passing through Berlin declared American mail and telegrams were being miscarried and delayed because they were addressed "Danzig, Poland."

Whether that port still is available for American and other liners in view of the present political situation is a matter of conjecture.

Danzig is overcrowded with Polish and Russian emigrants seeking an opportunity to embark for the United States.

Hungarian Cavalry Offered

WARSAW, Aug. 9.—Transportation through the border states of two divisions of cavalry offered to Poland by the Hungarian parliamentary delegation is under consideration.

Think Warsaw Doomed

PARIS, Aug. 9.—"Warsaw is doomed," was the remark heard everywhere today in official and political circles of Paris, replacing the belief expressed within the last few days, "there will be another battle of the Marne."

Circles which up to the present had been most optimistic conceded that the Bolsheviki had reached the Danzig-Warsaw railroad at Ciechanow, severing connections between Warsaw and the sea. Military circles point out that the Polish capital is now hemmed in from the northeast, east and southwest, and consider its fall a question of days, perhaps hours.

The latest communication announcing that the Bolsheviki captured Przasnysz and are moving westward toward Mlawa and Ciechanow, has created a most painful impression in Paris, the afternoon papers announcing that the capture of the latter town is a foregone conclusion. Rumors were circulated in the stock exchange this afternoon of General Pilsudi's suicide. It brought military operations to a complete standstill. The rumors, however, were unfrue.

Poles Helping Enemy

JOHANNISBURG, East Prussia, Aug. 9.—German communists on the East Prussian frontier, sympathizers with the Russian Bolsheviki, are elated by reports from Polish sources of continued Bolsheviki victories along the entire northern front. Today there were the first indications that they have assumed an aggressive attitude toward the security police and inter-Allied control officers.

Confidential information from the northern reaches of the frontier disclosed that there had been several attempts on the part of the Germans to enter Russia, and it is believed a number of them have succeeded in their efforts. A British frontier officer arrived here today with the report that at one station on the frontier a German officer with four of his soldiers had deliberately attempted to pass the border guards, saying he believed in the Bolsheviki and wanted to fight for them.

Control officers along the whole frontier are known to be ready to leave their posts on a moment's notice. They say that they will go in the event of a Russian invasion or a serious uprising, and it is believed these are their orders.

Reports from back of the Russian lines say that many Poles have taken up arms with the Soviet forces. Among these are soldier prisoners set free. German agents say also that it is known a large percentage of the population of unconquered Poland is only awaiting the opportunity to give Bolshevism armed support.

RUSSIANS KILL MORE JAPANESE

LONDON, Aug. 9.—A Reuter dispatch from Vladivostok says the government has received advices that the Japanese residents of Okhotsk, a maritime town of Siberia, on the Sea of Okhotsk, have been massacred and the town burned.

PRESS PARTY MOTORS TO ONTARIO CAPITAL

TORONTO Aug. 9.—Fair weather has temporarily deserted the touring party of press men, who reached here at 6:30 o'clock this evening over the highway from Hamilton.

This morning the trains were left at Grimsby, and the visitors motored through pouring rain to the country house of W. J. Southam, near Hamilton. Mayor Booker, of Hamilton, and Senator Lynch Staunton made speeches of welcome, and Lord Burnham replied.

Late in the afternoon the party continued, still by motor and through intermittent showers, their journey to Toronto. The first item of their entertainment in the Queen City was an informal dinner at the King Edward Hotel, tendered by the corporation of the city to the delegates and the ladies accompanying them.

HUGE CORN CROP EXPECTED IN U.S.

Latest Report Speaks of Yield Exceeding Three Billion Bushels—Spring Wheat Deteriorates and Fall Improves

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—A three billion bushel crop of corn for the third time in history was forecast by the Department of Agriculture on conditions existing Aug. 1. As August is the critical month for the crop, it is uncertain whether the promise of a crop almost equal to those of 1912 and 1917 will be fulfilled. Improvement was reported during July in the important corn States, with the exception of Illinois, and a crop forecast 224,000,000 bushels larger than predicted on July 1 was issued.

Spring wheat was adversely affected during July, principally by rust, and the production forecast was reduced 29,000,000 bushels from a month ago. The preliminary estimate of Winter wheat was 15,000,000 bushels larger than forecast in July, making the combined wheat crop only 14,000,000 bushels smaller than estimated a month ago. A total of 795,000,000 bushels was predicted.

There was improvement in the potato crop, and indications are that the crop will exceed 400,000,000 bushels for the fourth time in the country's history.

Tobacco has shown additional improvement, and the probabilities are that it will exceed the record crop of 1918 by about 200,000,000 pounds. Total production is forecast at 1,544,000,000 pounds.

Archbishop Mannix Landed in England

Taken From Steamship Baltic by British Destroyer and Placed Ashore at Penzance—Leaves for London—Irishmen Gather at Liverpool With View of Welcome

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 9.—Naval officers from British torpedo boat destroyers boarded the steamer Baltic when she arrived off Queenstown last night and presented orders to Archbishop Mannix from General Sir Nevil Macready, the military commander in Ireland, and from Field Marshal Sir Henry Hughes Wilson, chief of the Imperial staff, according to the Right Rev. Daniel Foley, of Ballarat, who arrived on the liner today. General Macready's order forbade Archbishop Mannix to land in Ireland. General Wilson's communication informed him that he could not land at Manchester, Liverpool or Glasgow.

The Archbishop refused to leave the steamer and was technically placed under arrest by an officer placing his hand upon the prelate's shoulder, Father Foley said. He was then taken off to a destroyer.

It was four o'clock in the morning when the Archbishop and his secretary, Father Vaughn, arrived on board the destroyer. Father Foley said the Archbishop was in good health during the voyage and mingled freely with the passengers, many of whom cheered him when he went over the Baltic's side to the destroyer.

Huge crowds had gathered in the streets of Liverpool leading to the landing stage to witness his arrival. Among them were many Irish volunteers and Sinn Feiners carrying banners. Representatives of various Irish societies and members of the Dublin and Cork corporations were present.

While waiting the crowd passed the time singing Sinn Fein songs and cheering for the "Irish Republic."

A large number of Irishmen tonight met in protest against the Government's treatment of Archbishop Mannix. All the members of the Dublin and Cork deputations were present, and many other prominent Irishmen attended.

A resolution submitted by Councilor Kelly, Lord Mayor of Dublin, thanking the Government "for helping the cause of Ireland by its action toward Archbishop Mannix," was carried by acclamation. Mr. Kelly proceeded to state that Eamonn de Valera had intended to spend £500,000 for propaganda, but the publicity given by the Mannix incident had saved this fund many thousands of pounds.

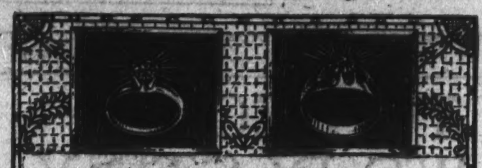

To the Associated Press the Lord Mayor of Dublin said:

"Some things I wish to say on this matter I will reserve until I return to Dublin, my native town. Although in England I am free and can say what I please, I don't like to embarrass the British Government, but I must express my disgust at their action in taking a high ecclesiastic from a steamer at an early hour of the morning and dropping him in No Man's Land. It shows they are in a state of nervous prostration."

LONDON, Aug. 9. — Four British destroyers closed in on the steamer Baltic, carrying Archbishop Mannix

PEOPLE IN BRITAIN PRACTISE ECONOMY

OTTAWA, Aug. 9.—That the British public is less inclined to many luxuries which they purchased freely for a considerable period after the armistice, and that as regards necessaries there is an inclination to limit demands to actual requirements, is a new phase of the British trade situation noted in a report that the Government has received from Harrison Watson, Canadian Trade Commissioner in London.

The report, which covers the first six months' period of the calendar year, states that although the prices of food and many other articles continued to rise, trade was inclined to halt, and a general impression prevails that the peak on most commodities has been reached.

Wheat importations for the six months from Canada amounted to 3,551,600 cwts., valued at £4,687,213 sterling. For the corresponding period in 1919 wheat imports from Canada approximately doubled this amount in value.

Killed in Motorcycle Race

TORONTO, Aug. 9.—George Smith, a passenger in a side car driven by Richard Bepple, of Hamilton, in a race at the exhibition grounds here, died on his way to a hospital from injuries to his head and body, sustained when the car crashed into a fence. Bepple lies in a hospital with a broken arm and leg and suffering severely from shock.

PRESS DELEGATES FINISH BUSINESS

Imperial Conference Closes Sessions at Ottawa After Three Days of Deliberations —Some of Its Conclusions

OTTAWA, Aug. 9.—The second Imperial Press Conference closed a three-day session in Ottawa Saturday. The newspaper publishers and editors from every part of the British Empire assembled under the chairmanship of Lord Burnham in the Parliament Building and discussed matters relating to the publication of newspapers and the broad questions of Empire development and the part which the press plays therein. Improved facilities for the transmission of news, cheaper cable rates, the possibilities of wireless telephony as a news carrier, the independence of the press, increased interchange of Empire news between British nations, and cheaper postal rates, both on letters and publications, were amongst the subjects discussed, and resolutions were adopted by the conference which will serve as a basis for appropriate action by newspapermen in the near future.

Newsprint supplies occupied the attention of the conference for several hours. The situation in this regard was thoroughly canvassed, a representative of the paper manufacturers addressing the convention, and the suggestion of Australian delegates that Canada, as the largest potential source of pulpwood and newsprint, give preference to British countries in the distribution of this product, was endorsed by the conference. His Excellency the Governor-General, Premier Meighen, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Sir George Foster and Senator Blondin were among the public men who addressed the conference. The former declared the conference closed, Lord Burnham voiced the gratitude of the conference to His Excellency, to the Government and various committees throughout Canada for the warm welcome and practical assistance which had been given the delegates in the course of their tour so far.

The closing speech of the conference was made by John Nelson, of The Vancouver World. He spoke of the friendly relations which all members of the visiting delegations had already established with the Canadian newspapermen and with each other, and, in the spirit of kinship, extended to the visitors a "welcome home," expressing the hope that they would come to look upon Canada as their home. Speaking of the responsibility of the press, Mr. Nelson suggested that the best way to meet the problems of the hour and to establish the good fellowship and unity needed to work out these problems was to "take out of our columns all that is churlish and put in all that is kindly. Every problem will give way to goodwill."

In moving a vote of thanks to the chairman, which was adopted with continuous applause, Mr. Nelson paid tribute to the tact, patience and efficiency which Lord Burnham had shown.

During the afternoon a resolution, moved by Lord Apsley, London Morning Post, was adopted for interchange of newspaper staffs between different parts of the Empire.

WHISKY SMUGGLING GIVES HARD PROBLEM

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Whisky smuggling into the United States has reached such proportions that it has brought in its wake a large illegal traffic in other commodities, it was learned today at the Treasury Department. Officials have become so concerned that they are considering a rearrangement of the Government's coastal criminal chasing arms.

The customs service has found itself "wholly inadequate" to meet the situation, according to Assistant Secretary Shouse.

Mr. Shouse declared it was no secret that vast quantities of liquor had been coming in, although officers had confiscated "thousands upon thousands of dollars worth from ships."

The larger supplies which officials believe have been smuggled in, however, have come, not through ports, but by landings of launches and small boats in secluded spots along the Atlantic coast.

The Canadian border traffic was declared not to compare with the smuggling along the Atlantic.

Tacoma Girl Fatally Burned

TACOMA, Aug. 9.—Miss Edith Bennett, 17, is dead today from burns received while curling her hair. Coming home from a picnic yesterday, Miss Bennett was heating a curling iron on a small alcohol stove when her light dress caught fire. She ran downstairs and was enveloped in flames when assistance arrived.

Fire Situation Improves

NELSON, B.C., Aug. 9.—No new outbreaks have been reported in the last 48 hours, and the fire situation in West Kootenay is distinctly better, the Erie fire being now under control. The five pumps which the department is using in different parts of the district are doing great work. A heavy haze hangs over the entire country.

CAPTAIN AMUNDSEN STARTS LONG CRUISE

NOME, Alaska, Aug. 9.—Captain Roald Amundsen left here yesterday on his ship Maud for a cruise in the Arctic.

Though Captain Amundsen has been in the Arctic for more than 19 months, he said his real voyage would begin only with his departure from Nome to drift northward in an ice pack. He said he would lay his course west of Wrangel Island toward the Siberian Islands, keeping in open water as long as possible until he found a favorable place for striking directly northward, probably in the vicinity where the Jeanette, of the James Gordon Bennett, jr., expedition, foundered in 1881.

His objective, he said, would be to gain two years lost by the Jeanette in drifting from Wrangel to the vicinity of Jeanette Island before it was beset by the ice.

At a public reception in his honor Saturday night, Captain Amundsen said his recent trip through the Northeast Passage was not a prearranged affair, but that he was forced to take that route after finding unfavorable ice conditions north of the Siberian Islands.

MR. T. P. O'CONNOR DENOUNCES BILL

Describes New Irish Crimes Measure as Most Coercive Legislation Ever Proposed in British Parliament

LONDON, Aug. 9.—T. P. O'Connor, president of the United Irish League of Great Britain, bitterly denounced the Irish Crimes Law passed by the House of Commons last week in a statement to the Associated Press Sunday night.

"The law," he said, "was the most coercive act ever proposed in the British Parliament, and, indeed, without a precedent in the parliamentary acts of any country in the history of the modern world.

"It gives the executive in Ireland a power as great as any czar ever claimed. It surrounds the exercise of this power with impenetrable secrecy. A man may be tried for his life in secret, convicted in secret and hanged in secret. It gives to the Government the right to make anything an offence. The refusal to work, to carry munitions, to hold a meeting, to sing a song, to refuse to supply the police with food—everything is left to the will of the executive.

"The Government refused to accept an amendment presented by Liberals and even by its own supporters. This would have inserted a proviso which would prevent the creation of new offences. The Government replied that it wanted carte blanche and that anything could be made an offence in Ireland, even though such action would not be an offence in the criminal code of any land in the world. Finally, the Government refused every amendment to define the duration of the act—it is forever and ever."

SPECIAL KILLED IN BANDIT HUNT

Foreigner Who Was Sworn in by Police Shot in Mistake by Constable — Bloodhounds Sent From Seattle

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., Aug. 9.—Nick Kyslik, a foreigner who was sworn in by the Alberta Provincial police in the bandit hunt at Hillcrest, was shot and killed in mistake while the police were raiding the houses of foreign miners Sunday in search for Basseff, the wounded bandit. Kyslik jumped from a window in a house being raided and was shot by an A.P.P. constable who thought he was the bandit, Basseff. This is the third innocent life lost in the hunt for the desperadoes.

VANCOUVER, Aug. 9.—Three bloodhounds, the property of Sheriff John Stringer, of Seattle, arrived here this morning and will be sent East today and used in the hunt for the escaped train bandits and murderer in the Crow's Nest Pass. Sheriff Stringer is sending the dogs, it is stated, to engage in the man-hunt at the request of Major McLeod, of the C.P.R. investigation department. The dogs, "Lightning," "Dynamite," and "Dan," are famous trackers of criminals. They are in charge of Officers Asa Lee and C. H. Kearney.

LETHBRIDGE, Aug. 9.—Basseff, the wounded bandit, appeared at the shack of a miner half a mile east of Frank early this morning and demanded something to eat. The police learned of his second appearance since the shooting late in the forenoon while making a search of the houses in that valley.

MUCH LIQUOR SEIZED IN SASKATCHEWAN

SWIFT CURRENT, Sask., Aug. 9.—Posing as a cowboy, Inspector Stewart, of the Provincial Police, accompanied by two or three men, has made one of the largest liquor seizures ever recorded.

At Govanlock, Sask., liquor worth $41,000 was taken from the Regina Wine & Spirit Company. At Hattori the Diamond Liquor Export Company gave up $14,000 worth, and the Hatton Export Company produced $20,000 worth.

Three men have been arrested and are out on $3,000 bail.

Grand Trunk Arbitration

OTTAWA, Aug. 9.—Grand Trunk arbitration proceedings will not commence before the early part of September, it was stated by officials of the Department of Railways this morning. Prior to the date of the first hearing it is expected that Sir Thomas White will resign as member for Leeds in the House of Commons.

Government at Washington Has Not Decided on Proposals for Aid to Poland—Exchanging Views

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Commitment of the United States to a plan of action in the Polish crisis continued to be held in abeyance today while word was being received of the decision of France and Great Britain to impose a blockade on Soviet Russia.

The note dispatched by Poland to the United States has not been received. It was stated, however, that the Government was in constant communication with France and Great Britain, and that the situation was occupying the almost exclusive attention of foreign affairs officials.

Effectiveness of the proposed blockade was seriously questioned by officials, who declared a blockade had been maintained by the British in the Baltic Sea since the armistice. The blockade, however, although never formally announced, has prevented importation into Russia of any goods the Allies desired to keep out, they claimed, without having broken the Soviet power.

There was no reason to expect, it was said, that the formal announcement of a blockade already existing would promise any of the hoped-for remedies. Use of forces by France and Great Britain was equally void of hopeful results, in the opinion of officials. A proclamation addressed by the Polish council of ministers to the Polish nation was made public today by the Polish legation. Appeal was made for all citizens to defend their homes " in the holy war before the gates of Warsaw."

"The Government will defend the country to the last drop of her blood," the proclamation adds.

The latest word the Government had from Poland reviewed the situation up to Saturday night. The department announced that a "more hopeful view of the situation at Warsaw" was indicated by these dispatches.

The statement said also that some American residents had left Warsaw, and that the American consulate was reported to be moving to Graudenz Saturday morning. It was added that the American legation was prepared to leave if the Poles moved the seat of government.

Applications for passports from former citizens of Poland who wish to return home to aid relatives are being received in increasing numbers, but no passports have been issued for several weeks.

SINN FEIN PLANS WIDER OPERATION

Military Authorities Have Information of Coming War on More Extensive Scale—Policemen Wounded

CORK, Aug. 9.—The military authorities claim to have received information of the intention of the Republicans to inaugurate within the next three months a war against the "invaders" on a much larger scale than heretofore. This information is declared to indicate that recruiting for the Republican brotherhood, supposedly the brains of the Republican army, and which carries on its activities much more secretly than the latter, has been more active lately, resulting in the enrollment of a large number who have heretofore kept apart from the movement.

There is no hope of defeating the British army, which is much better equipped, but the leaders are expected to create such a state of affairs as to bring about international intervention. The Republicans, it is said, are not overburdened with funds, money having failed to come from the Dominions and the United States to the amount anticipated, but this is considered to be of small consequence, as it costs little to maintain the Republican army, the needs of which are amply supplied by sympathizers within the country. The military have the names of a number of men, some of whom, they say, coming from the United States, who will support the uprising.

BELFAST, Aug. 9.—Nine policemen were ambuscaded at Kildoory, County Cork, Sunday, five being wounded. Their arms were taken from them.

BELFAST, Aug. 9.—The flying of Sinn Fein flags in connection with a Mannix demonstration in Londonderry, Sunday, was nearly attended by bloodshed. Shots were fired between rival factions, but the troops with an armored car came upon the scene and dispersed the disturbers of the peace.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—The Evening Standard claims documentary evidence that a Sinn Fein congress in June authorized Eamon de Valera, "president of the Irish Republic," to expend $500,000 "in connection with the campaign for the presidency of the United States." One million dollars in expenditure by de Valera was authorized to obtain recognition of the Irish Republic, the newspaper declares.

METHODIST MINISTERS TO GET BETTER PAY

TORONTO, Aug. 9.—Ministers of the Methodist Church throughout the Dominion are practically assured of a substantial increase in salaries, according to reports received by Rev. D. G. Ridout, secretary of the Dominion ministerial support committee.

The committee, according to Mr. Ridout, has not received a single refusal of its request to the different boards for increased salary. The committee is asking for the ministers in country districts $1,500 annually, $1,800 for those in towns and $2,000 for those in cities.

MINISTER CALDER LEAVES FOR ENGLAND

OTTAWA, Aug. 9.—Hon. J. A. Calder leaves tonight for Quebec, whence he sails for the Mother Country. During his absence Hon. Arthur Sifton will be acting President of the Privy Council, and Hon. J. D. Reid, Minister of Railways, will be acting Minister of Immigration and Colonization.

Mr. Calder expects to return to Canada in time to take over his duties as member of the tariff commission, which commences its labors in Winnipeg on September 15.

While he is going to England primarily on immigration business, Mr. Calder, while in London, will attend to a number of important Government matters relating to other departments, and the volume of business with which he will have to deal may possibly delay his departure for home.

ASK COUNCIL TO BACK RACE MEET

Returned Soldiers' Delegation Urges Mayor and Aldermen to Approve of Scheme to Bring Horses Here

Proposal to bring to Victoria by specially chartered steamer the horses from Brighouse Park, Vancouver, for an eight-day race meet at the Willows, commencing Saturday, was put before the City Council last night by representatives of local returned soldier organizations.

The Council declined to consider the matter during its regular session, but unofficially listened to the deputation and finally reached no decision. The meeting did not adjourn until a few minutes before midnight, and for a time there was indication of excitement when some of the delegates urged the aldermen to state their individual attitudes.

Major Bullock-Webster, who introduced the delegation, said that the returned soldiers had been told that if the Council would approve of the holding of the race meet suggested, one hundred returned men would be employed by the promoters of the meet at $8 a day, and that 50 per cent of the profits would be turned over to the veterans. It was pointed out that wages alone during the Vancouver meet amounted to $46,000.

"It looks to me like an extremely attractive offer," said Major Bullock-Webster. "Tomorrow a special boat to bring over the horses will be chartered if you give your approval."

Mayor Porter told the delegation during the regular session of the Council, when the traffic by-law was being discussed, that it was not customary to hear delegations Monday night, and that it had been made a hard-and-fast rule to listen to requests of that kind at the Friday afternoon meetings.

On motion of Ald. Andros, however, the regular meeting was adjourned and the aldermen agreed to remain and hear the arguments put forward.

Might Clash With Fair

Mayor Porter pointed out that, as president of the B. C. Agricultural Association, he had worked for a race meet here during the Fall Fair. He had been interested only in that project, and he thought that a meet previous to that would jeopardize the success of the Fair races. "There is a great deal of objection to horse racing here, anyway," said the Mayor. "You remember what happened when we had the sixty-day meet here."

Ald. Dinsdale supported the scheme, declaring that a good race here now would "put Victoria on the map."

Ald. Johns said he was against the meet if it would result in the promotion of gambling.

"I like a good horse race, but I'm against gambling," he declared. "I don't think the citizens would support it even if they knew it would help some returned soldiers. They would be against any such plan to bleed the people of the Northwest."

Sergt. A. T. Cresswell, of the Horsemen's Association, who said he had spent more than a hundred days at the Tia Juana races, claimed that it was the duty of the Council to support the plan. "We didn't go overseas to fight for prohibition and a lot of things like that," he said. "We've still got some sporting blood in us, even if it may be weak."

Misleading Them

Before the meeting adjourned half the aldermanic benches had been vacated. Ald. Sargent was among the first to go.

"Mr. Mayor, we are misleading these men. We can't do anything tonight," he said as he reached for his hat and cane.

"We want to know where you aldermen stand," declared one of the delegates. "We want to know who are our friends and who are not."

This assertion brought Major Bullock-Webster to his feet.

"I am not in favor of what this man says at all," he announced. "As a matter of fact, he's not in this delegation. I don't want to place any alderman in an embarrassing position."

"Don't jump on me," pleaded Ald. Andros, who had started toward the door. "The Mayor told you we couldn't hear you during the regular meeting, and my motion gave you an opportunity to present your case. We did it out of politeness. I may say that I favor a race meet if it is properly conducted."

Some of the delegates started to argue about the right of the Council to make a binding decision. They seemed to think it could.

Resents Threats

Ald. Patrick then told what he thought of the delegation and its proposal. "You told them, Mr. Mayor, that we could do nothing in an official way tonight," he said. "But we listened to them patiently; some of them spoke four or five times, but we let them do it, and then they threaten us. I don't propose to let anyone bully-rag me into saying what I don't want to voluntarily. I don't want anyone to come in here and threaten me with the election. When the people aren't satisfied, they can turn me out at the proper time."

Ald. Sangster said he resented any threats, too. At a matter of fact, he said, no proposition had so far been placed before the B.C. Agricultural Association by a responsible party. Personally, he did not object to a race meet prior to the Fair, but it would have to be on the legalized parimutuel basis.

About this time there seemed to be a general exodus and the meeting disbanded without a decision being reached. Supporters of the proposed meet will probably continue their negotiations today, but the outlook for them is not very bright.

PREMIERS AGREE ON POLAND PLAN

Decide to Help Invaded Country by Blockade of Soviet Russia and Supply of Munitions—Anxiety in Britain

HYTHE, Eng., Aug. 9.—The Allied conference here reached a complete agreement this morning on plans for dealing with the Russo-Polish crisis. They include the reimposition of the blockade, and giving support to Poland by technical advice, supplying munitions, etc., but no Allied troops will be employed.

The plans are subject to the approval of the British parliament, which Premier Lloyd George will address tomorrow.

The conference of the Premiers ended at 4 p.m.

Await Results at Minsk

It is probable, if the plans are approved, that they will not go into effect until the preliminary results of the meeting at Minsk between the Soviet and Polish negotiators are known. If they indicate a willingness by the Russians to adopt a course considered reasonable in dealing with the Poles the Allied aid may be withheld.

The British Government has decided that the Russian mission may remain in London until the Minsk conference is concluded.

Immediately after the conference, Premier Lloyd George and Foreign Secretary Curzon took a train for London, while Premier Millerand and his party boarded a destroyer bound for France.

It is said that the Allies, though loth to admit it, feel that there is little hope of saving Warsaw, and that the question of saving Poland is not the main issue.

The main problem facing the Premiers is the defence of Western Europe.

Aim at Western Europe

In British and French circles it is declared that the intention of the Bolsheviki regarding Poland is becoming clearer every hour. The prevailing impression among the British and French officials is that the Soviet government hopes through the Polish offensive firmly to establish Bolshevism at the doors of the Western powers.

Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, chief of the imperial staff of the British army, Admiral Earl Beatty, commander of the Grand Fleet, and Marshal Foch, of France, conferred at Hythe regarding the Polish situation until an early hour this morning, according to a Central News dispatch. It is learned that the Allied naval and military experts are in complete accord regarding plans for checking the westward advance of the Russian Bolsheviki, it is said.

There is a possibility of immediate naval mobilization to enforce a strict blockade of Russia, and that France will co-operate in this movement.

Anxiety in Britain

There is a deep note of anxiety pervading comment in this morning's newspapers relative to the rejection by the Russian Soviet government of the request made by Premier Lloyd George for a 10-day truce with Poland. Regardless of the views adopted by different newspapers on the general question of Bolshevism and on the immediate relations between Russia and Poland, concern is reflected by all.

Renewal of war in Europe is generally considered a possibility, and is treated in gravest terms. It is not regarded as inevitable, but no one ventures to strike an optimistic note.

"A very dark hour," is The Times' editorial headline. "Is it war?" asks The Daily News, and The Telegraph declares: "The situation holds grave peril, which has menaced Europe since the Germans marched into Belgium."

Labor Aids Bolsheviki

The attitude of British workers is given much consideration by several journals. The Daily News denounces the irreconcilability of France to a settlement with Russia, and declares: "If the decision rested with Great Britain there would be peace with Russia in a fortnight." In any case, the newspaper is convinced workers of all ranks in Great Britain will "refuse to lift a finger, and will strike if so criminal an enterprise as war against Russia is attempted."

The Times and Morning Post charge that "Bolshevik sympathisers among British laborites" are acting in behalf of Soviet Russia, and The Morning Post accuses them of "helping to promote the civil war which Nikolai Lenine, the Bolshevik premier, recently prescribed."

The newspaper apparently believes the attitude of workers will compel the Allies to surrender to Bolshevism.

"The situation," it declares, "has been so contrived that the Allies will be in a position where it is impossible to advance without disaster, or retreat without dishonor. It may be humiliating for Great Britain to capitulate, but it is to be made impossible for her to fight."

REPORTS POLAND MOVING CAPITAL

Moscow Dispatch Says It Will Be Established at Kalisz—Fighting Proceeds With Varied Results

LONDON, Aug. 9.—The Polish Government is leaving Warsaw, its capital, it is asserted in a wireless dispatch from Moscow received here this afternoon.

The Government is being removed to Kalisz, the message says.

Kalisz is the capital of the Province of Kalisz, and is about 150 miles west-southwest of Warsaw, close to the old German border. It is on the direct railway line from Warsaw to Posen, for which latter place all the foreign legations in Warsaw have left.

WARSAW, Aug. 8.—All foreign legations in Warsaw left for Posen tonight. John Campbell White, secretary, and J. Pierpont Moffatt, third secretary of the American Legation, and the military attaches will remain in Warsaw for the present, but the rest of the personnel left.

A few American Red Cross nurses and some Y.M.C.A. workers also remain.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—Poland is still far from being beaten, in the opinion of Marshal Foch, as expressed in an interview with the Exchange Telegraph's correspondent at Hythe.

Providing Poland's forces and her military material are quickly organized, the Marshal is quoted as saying, she may yet be able to successfully defend her frontiers.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—Russian Bolsheviki troops have broken into the town of Sokolow, about 40 miles northeast of Warsaw, and have captured several points south of Brest-Litovsk, according to an official statement issued in Moscow yesterday and received here by wireless.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—The Bolsheviki military authorities have established soviets in the parts of East Galicia under their occupation, it is stated in an authoritative dispatch received here.

PARIS, Aug. 9.—The Polish general staff has rejected the offer of General Weygand, of the French army, to take command of the Polish army if granted full authority, the Anglo-French mission in Warsaw reported today.

Both General Weygand and General Delma Radcliffe, of the British military mission, have been insisting that the situation was not hopeless.

PARIS, Aug. 9.—Russian cavalry driving westward from Przasnysz has occupied Chor, within a day's riding distance of the Warsaw-Danzig railway, which is expected to be reached either at Miawa or Ciechanow late today or early Tuesday, according to advices reaching the French Foreign Office.

The soviet cavalry units are reported greatly depleted owing to the exhaustion of both men and horses.

WARSAW, Aug. 8.—11 p.m.—Soviet forces striking westward from the vicinity of Brest-Litovsk in their great encircling movement have cut through the Polish lines and crossed the railroad running between Sokolow and Siedlce. They reached a point west of Sokolow, but were counter-attacked, and violent fighting is proceeding, according to an official statement tonight. The Poles took some prisoners.

Bitter fighting is reported northwest of Warsaw, where several villages have changed hands several times, but the Bolsheviki made no gains. Rozan, three miles northwest of Ostrolenka, was taken by the Bolsheviki yesterday, but now is in the hands of the Poles, who are defending it.

There is heavy fighting along the Bug River from Drohiczyn to Wlodzimir-Zwolyn, where the Bolsheviki are being held. In the fighting along the southern front the Poles have the advantage.

WARSAW, Aug. 9.—A plot, believed to have been of Communist origin and designed to blow up general hleadquarters has been discovered in Warsaw. Many persons have been arrested, and great quantities of arms and ammunition confiscated in the old Russian cathedral, which is situated just across the street from the army offices.

The arms were found in the basement of the church. Here also was discovered a tunnel, nearly complete, which was being dug under the street toward army headquarters. The finding of the tunnel and the arms came as a result of a night meeting of the general staff, when thumping was heard.

WARSAW, Aug. 9.—Bolsheviki aviators flying over the Polish lines have scattered broadcast propaganda pamphlets signed by Felix Dzierzynski, president of the revolutionary committee in Poland, saying: "Make your officers prisoners and let us jointly march on Warsaw."

The Poles are appealed to in this pamphlet to wipe out the Aristocracy and told that the Bolsheviki are marching on Warsaw with the best of motives—to save the country from the landowners' rule.

Pain Over Eyes Is Gone, Headache Cured, Catarrh Relieved!

This Is the Common Experience of Those Who Breathe the Vapor of

Catarrhozone

Remember this, Catarrh can never be cured or even relieved by a cough syrup, a spray, or tablet treatment. Trouble is these remedies slip quickly over the sore irritated membranes, drop into the stomach and do little else but harm digestion. It's different with "Catarrhozone"—you inhale it. Every breath sends healing balsams to the inflamed tissues. Tightness, soreness and inflammation are cured by healing pine essences. The cough dies away, throat is strengthened, huskiness is cured. Nothing is so simple, so convenient, so certain to cure as Catarrhozone. The dollar outfit includes the inhaler, costs $1.00, and is guaranteed to cure. NATIVE SON LECTURES FOR BIG U. S. DRIVES

Mr. P. L. Smith, of Nanaimo, Visiting Friends in Victoria After Successful Campaign

Mr. P. L. Smith, a native son of Nanaimo, formerly editor of The Kilt, the official organ of the 72nd Regiment, of Vancouver, is in Victoria for a few days renewing old acquaintances. Mr. Smith established a record of 20,000 miles in uniform as a speaker for the U. S. Liberty Bond drives and Red Cross drives, making three hundred speeches. Afterwards, he was Field Director for the Yosemite Valley Highway, a two-million-dollar drive, and he near East drive in California and Nevada, which was for $600,000.

Mr. Smith was forced to refuse the management of a drive for campaign funds of one of the largest political parties in the United States, in Utah, through ill health, resulting from wounds received in the war. He has come to British Columbia for medical attention.

Mr. Smith's father was Donald Smith, formerly connected with The Standard, with the late Hon. Amor de Cosmos.

THE SITUATION IN POLAND.

The decision reached by France and Britain respecting intervention in aid of Poland appears to be to re-impose the economic blockade of Russia and to give support to the Poles in the way of technical advice and by supplying munitions of war. This will mean, for one thing, that while a Bolshevik soldier remains on Polish soil no nation will be able to trade with Russia so far as that can be prevented by Allied power. The present situation, affecting Poland, renders it at least problematical how far the promised Allied aid will be effective in saving that country from the domination of Soviet Russia. Much will depend on the aid given by Germany, unofficially, to the Bolshevik armies. Apart from the plight of Poland, the independence of which is guaranteed by the Supreme Council, there is the problem of Bolshevik arms advancing to the German frontier and perhaps beyond. What is developing constitutes as great a menace to free peoples as that when Prussian militarism threw down the gauntlet in August, 1914.

A victorious Bolshevik army will be an ally of potent aid to the world-wide propaganda circulating from Moscow. The conditions in Central Europe are so unsettled, there is so much social instability, that Soviet power, once seized of Poland, might not experience undue difficulty in inserting some more red rags in the patchwork quilt of Europe. This is a matter of grave concern to every nation that was allied against Germany in the late war, for Bolshevik aggression in Central Europe will have the effect of causing all the fruits of victory to disappear, since it will mean that one form of militarism would be replaced by another, equally implacable and ruthless. Germany is watching, with more interest than is apparent, how far the Allies are prepared to go in carrying out the Treaty of Versailles. Their success or failure in maintaining Poland's independence will be the keynote to Germany's course of conduct in the future. There is no doubt that shrewd minds in Germany have schemed, and continue to scheme, to use Soviet Russia as a weapon to test the strength of the Allied Powers now that nearly two years have passed by since the Armistice. The Bolshevik armies are largely officered by Germans. Their methods of warfare and ability to conduct hostilities on so many fronts indicate the effects of German organisation. These aspects of the situation are no cause for wonder inasmuch as it was German gold which was mainly instrumental in placing M. Lenine in power at Petrograd.

One of the most extraordinary features of the situation that has developed is the feeling of apathy which prevails over the possible doom of Poland. Although the honor of France and Britain, of Italy and Japan, and even of the United States is at stake, the whole task of deciding what should be done to carry out the Treaty of Versailles is being left to the two former Powers. In Britain certain Labor leaders are engineering a protest against intervention, and even threatening direct action to prevent any step which will interfere with the progress of Bolshevik arms. Such a course is almost unthinkable where the honor of the British nation is involved and the peace of Europe is at issue, to say nothing of the fate of a small people who have struggled through the centuries for their freedom, which, just won, seems on the eve of being lost again. It is no exaggeration to say that the sense of honor entertained by the democratic peoples of earth is being tested in the situation which has developed over Poland. The maintenance of the independence of that state is the touchstone of what a League of Nations may be able to do in the hereafter to preserve the peace of the world.

A SAANICH HIGHWAY.

Insufficient consideration appears to have been given to the future disposition of the right of way of the old Victoria and Sidney Railway. One suggestion which does not seem to have arisen is the desirability of using it as the base for the construction of a new highway through the peninsula. Such a roadway would serve a territory already built up to some extent by the operation of the railway, and no doubt a well paved road would be the means of attracting settlers into a district which is becoming more popular every year. It cannot be claimed that Saanich has sufficient roads; certainly there are not enough to give the majority of the residents opportunities of finding the shortest way to Victoria. Lack of roadways undoubtedly holds up development in some parts of the peninsula.

The opportunity of acquiring the right of way of the old V. & S. Railway should not be overlooked by the Saanich municipal authorities, who could co-operate with the Provincial Government in any steps taken. It would not be necessary at once to lay down an up-to-date pavement, for this could be done by degrees as warranted by finances. The first step would be, provided the suggestion met with official sanction, to ascertain under what conditions the right of way could be used for a highway. Saanich development will shortly demand, and demand urgently, the provision of new roadways, especially with the steady increase in motor traffic. Since the right of way alluded to is lying idle the opportunity exists of turning it to permanent use. The desirability of this might well become a topic of practical interest among those most closely affected.

AN EDITORIAL EXCHANGE.

Among the interesting decisions reached by the Imperial Press Conference is one for the interchange of representatives of newspaper staffs between different parts of the Empire. This is a matter of live moment to the public generally of all the British peoples, for it would have the tendency eventually, if it fulfils the purpose in view, of giving a broader outlook to the press of Britain and the Dominions. An existing weakness of a large proportion of the Empire press is a narrowness of vision, a vision sometimes bound by purely local problems to the exclusion of weightier matters. The press, perhaps more than any other human institution, is susceptible to the doctrine: "That which is nearest us touches us most; the passions rise higher at domestic than at imperial tragedies." Newspapers have got to recognise this doctrine if they are to feel the pulse of public opinion, but that does not absolve them from occupying an educative role which should make them the medium of a better acquaintance between the peoples of the British Empire.

Newspapermen who are given an opportunity of world travel, or at least of visiting different parts of the Empire and studying conditions there, will enlarge their usefulness in the countries where their own newspapers are published. The suggestion is by no means new, but it is about to be put in force for the first time, and while we think for sometime it will be restricted to members of the staffs of the larger newspapers in the different parts of the Empire, there is no reason why, if the effects are as beneficial as is anticipated, the practice should not become static. Under what conditions the exchange will be made, and for what term of time do not appear to have been decided, and, indeed, those are matters to be worked out by the newspapers themselves. From the public standpoint there is no doubt good will accrue. The public are the logical critics of the press, and often in this country the criticism has been that the newspapers know too little of the Empire of which Canada is a part.

Daylight Saving

Sir,—In a recent issue of The Colonist it was stated that the Vancouver Board of Trade were going to petition the Government for a statute authorizing them to enforce the daylight saving scheme. Should not like steps be taken in Victoria, as it was conclusively proved last June that it is little use looking to the City Aldermen to further the wishes of the majority in this matter, and we do not want to have another Summer spoilt as this one is being?

Farmers and Education

Sir,—Mr. Anstey's admirable address to teachers reported in today's Colonist contains one expression of policy toward the general public which is open to grave criticism. He is giving counsel to the teachers as to how he should act if challenged by a farmer as to the value of certain subjects in the school curriculum and his counsel is that the teacher should avoid the issue because the farmer knows nothing about education. "You cannot," said the lecturer "tell your adviser that he does not know what he is talking about. It is best sometimes to change the subject."

Surely this would be a poor policy for the teacher to follow. Would it not be worth his while to take infinite pains to enlist the intelligent sympathy of the farmer, for Mr. Anstey well knows that the teacher's success largely depends on the sympathetic co-operation of the parent?

If the lecturer's advice is an echo of the policy of the Department of Education let us hope for a speedy change. We are trying to work a democracy and when you have democratic government you must enlist the enthusiasm of the whole people for any educational scheme that is going to be an ultimate success. It won't do to say, "We believe this is the best curriculum for your children but we cannot explain why this is so because you have had no training in pedagogy." If we were governed by an autocracy his method might succeed but it is a fatal error to adopt such an attitude in this country. What is needed is to deepen the faith of the people as a whole in the value of education and especially of High School education. The vendor of a quack medicine proceeds with amazing skill to get the public to believe that the drug he offers them is a desirable thing for them to have. Mr. Anstey and his colleagues offer the people the solid treasure of a well thought out plan of education and is it not part of their duty to convince the people as a whole of the immense value to the nation of that which they have to offer? When you get public opinion behind the school teacher he will magnify his office and he will achieve great results, but without enthusiasm on the part of the people as a whole he can never do his best.

I take it Mr. Anstey does not suggest that it would be more difficult to explain to the farmer than to any other class in the community the principles that underlie a sound educational policy. If Mr. Anstey knows the farmer he knows that if his mind is not so sharp it is probably deeper than that of the business man. The farmer's active life is based on a knowledge of the laws of nature and on obedience to these laws and this gives him a training that at least approaches in value to that of a scientific education. He may not have read and may never read one serious book on the educational problem but he has sufficient sagacity to grasp that problem if it is clearly explained. The Cowichan farmer who is earning a living from the soil has to work hard. That fine automobile in which he and his family run about is largely a figment of Mr. Anstey's imagination. But if Mr. Anstey will come to Duncan and give us a lecture on education I am sure that many a farmer will wipe the sweat from his face, put off his overalls and come to the lecture, and the lecturer may be astonished at the intelligence of the interest he will arouse.

Anglo-Israelites

Sir,—I am sending a few paragraphs copied from a little book entitled "Jewish Hopes" which I think might interest your readers at this time.

Under the headline, "Anglo-Israelites," the author states, "We must express our dissent from the views of those who claim that the Anglo-Saxons are the Israel of promise in the Scriptures. Those whose theory we criticize claim that they can trace their journey toward Great Britain, and that the greatness and influence of the English-speaking peoples of the world are traceable to the fact that they belong to Israel, and are inheriting the promises made to Israel. To this we answer: Some of the evidences offered in proof that they are of the 'lost tribes' seem far from strong; but if we should admit all they claim in this, it would not prove their position that the greatness and influence of the Anglo-Saxon race are attributable to their being Israelites by natural generation, any more than to their being 'lost.' Their greatness is attributable to their freedom and intelligence, which are traceable not to their being lost nor to their being born Israelites according to the flesh, but to the doctrines of Christ—to the light which some of the spiritual seed of Abraham let shine among them. The fact that the ten tribes strayed away from the two is not to their credit, but otherwise. It is an evidence that they were disposed to reject God's promises. . . . It was to the descendants of the fittest of all the tribes of Israel and all called Jews that our Lord presented Himself and the Kingdom at the first advent, as representing the holy nation, Israel entire. Our Lord referred to them as Israel, and not as a part of Israel—not as Judah merely. He speaks of even those who had clung to the promises and to each other as 'the lost sheep of the house of Israel' in that they had wandered far from the truth, after the traditions of false shepherds who had led them in their own way and not as God directed. So then, even if it could be demonstrated that the Anglo-Saxon peoples were part of the 'ten lost tribes,' we see clearly that no favor could have come to them upon that score under that covenant; for they 'deserted the Israelitish covenant and became idolaters, unbelievers, and practically Gentiles. Besides, as already noted, all recognized as the natural seed of Abraham, who would continue to reject Christ, were cast off from all favor from the time of Christ's death to the year 1878 when, chronologically, divine favor was due to return to them, and their blindness to begin to be removed. Consequently, the prominence of the Anglo-Saxons for the past centuries could in no sense have been Israel's returning favor. Those from whom the favor was taken for the rejection and crucifixion of the Lord are the ones to whom the favor is to return now. At that time, and ever since, Israel has been represented by 'the Jew' (Romans ii, 9-10), and it is the 'Jew' that will now be restored to favor as the natural 'seed of Abraham.' These with the spiritual 'seed' (selected during the Gospel age—a remnant of Israel, Jews and the remainder gathered from the Gentiles) are to be God's agencies for blessing all the families of the earth."

MRS. E. W. HOGARTH,

British-Israelism

Sir,—It was with considerable surprise that I noticed Mr. Parsons had joined me with the spiritualizing school of thought. I therefore hasten to assure him that I accept without reserve the formula laid down that when a passage will bear a literal interpretation we should adopt that method, and it is because Mr. Parsons has failed to follow this safe rule that I have taken issue with his interpretation of the Bible. With regard to Matt. xxi, 43, there is no need for speculation, the kingdom was taken from the Jews and given to the Gentiles. This is clearly shown in Acts xiii, 46, where Paul says to the Jews, "Seeing ye put it away from you and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, lo we turn to the Gentiles." In his letter to the Romans he explains this fully. "What then? Israel hath not obtained that which she seeketh for." Rom. xi, 7. And in the eleventh verse he continues, "Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid; but rather through their fall salvation is come to the Gentiles." And in this logical treatise he shows that if God spared not the natural branches, the natural sons of Israel, the Gentile believers were to take heed lest God would not spare them, who were but wild branches grafted into the good olive tree. It is utterly impossible to harmonize this with British-Israelism. We would have to say through the fall of Judahism Israel has risen and therefore the Gentiles must fall, and that the natural branches were never cast away. And no Gentiles were ever grafted on to the Israelitish tree, and with no other object than the glorification of Britain we reduce Paul's well-reasoned letter to utter nonsense.

And I ask your readers to judge whether Mr. Parsons or any other writer in support of the theory does not only violate the letter but also the spirit of the written word. The same will be noticed in Mr. Parson's explanation of the stone power of Daniel. He explains the prophecy finds its fulfilment in the greatness of the British Empire. There is no proof for this statement, for none is possible, and it would seem as if our friends tried to make all prophecy centre around Britain, whereas it is plain law laid down for our guidance that "Testimony to Jesus is the spirit that underlies all prophecy," Rev. xix, 10 (Weymouth). That the stone of Daniel was cut out of the mountain without hands, that is, without human aid, would lead us to look for another explanation, for we are asked to believe it was Britain with the aid of the States that is the stone; and the aid given by Russia, France and Italy, also Belgium and Servia in crushing the Central Powers is discreetly omitted, simply because they are not within the Empire.

That the image is synonymous with the beast I agree, but how does that help Mr. Parsons? In Dan. 7, which deals with its destruction, the time is made contemporary with the coming of Christ in v. 13. One like the Son of Man came; and in v. 26, the judgment sat, consequently in v. 27 the Kingdom was given to the Saints. Thus the stone of Dan. 2 is the stone the builders of Israel rejected, and has now become the head of the corner. This is the one who is coming to crush all who oppose him. Mr. Parsons particularly asked me to read Matt. 21, v. 44. I wish to say I have done so and believe it to be the stone of Dan. 2. Reading in through British-Israel spectacles we would have to suppose Christ was warning these Pharisees that a nation called Britain would rise into power and crush them after they had been dead for centuries; in v. 45 we are told they perceived He spoke of them; therefore on the authority of the Lord Jesus we are justified in saying He is the stone. I note what Mr. Parsons says about the thousands of infidels and skeptics who have been arrested by British-Israelism. "Tell it not in Gath," Mr. Editor, when I confess that if you went into the world to preach the Gospel of British-Israelism you would make a thousand skeptics for every one you would arrest in the British Empire, and to my way of thinking it would be a discreditable and an undesirable undertaking and one that must, if persisted in, cause further estrangement betwen Britain and the rest of the world.

RECORD PRICE PAID FOR RASPBERRY PATCH

"In the sale of the raspberry patch of Mr. J. Brown, Huntingdon, berry acreage has reached a record in values.

"For the nine and a half acres eleven thousand dollars was paid last week by the Broder Canning Co., of New Westminster.

"What enhances the price of the Brown ranch is the fact that Mr. Brown retains this year's crop now being picked, and from which five thousand dollars profit is expected."

ANOTHER DOLLAR IS ADDED TO BIG LINERS

VANCOUVER, Aug. 9.—A new steamer is added to the Canadian Robert Dollar Company's services out of Vancouver to New York and the Orient, bringing the Dollar fleet of freighters operating from Vancouver to six. The local offices of the company received a cable today from Captain Robert Dollar, at present in London, stating that he had completed the purchase of the 11,800 ton freighter Parisian.

The Parisian is now known as the Esther Dollar.

The Esther Dollar is now at London and will proceed to New York in ballast late this month, if no cargo is offering.

Much Wheat in Australia

LONDON, Aug. 9.—Australian cables announce an almost record area under wheat. A highly satisfactory yield is expected.

TWO OF BANDITS WHO ROBBED CAMP CAUGHT

Cranbrook Police Round Up Pair of Russians as Principals in Recent Hold-Up of Lumber Plant

In the arrest at Cranbrook last week of two Russians who were involved in the robbery of the Crow's Nest Pass Lumber Company's offices at Skoomemchuck on July 31, when three armed bandits secured $125 in cash, two gold watches and a number of cheques on the Canadian Bank of Commerce, it has been definitely proved that the trio involved in that robbery were not the three foreigners who subsequently held up the C.P.R. train at Sentinel, Alberta, and after robbing the passengers got away, later to be encountered at Bellevue where, in a running pistol duel, they shot and killed two policemen, losing one of their number who was shot by a Mounted Police officer and who are now believed to be cornered in the vicinity of Frank, Alta.

Word received yesterday by Superintendent McMynn, of the Provincial Police Department, stated that the two men arrested at Cranbrook have been identified as two of the three who held up the Crow's Nest Pass Lumber Company's camp. Hence it is certain that they were not involved in the Sentinel train robbery, though the fact that they are Russians, the same nationality as that of the train robbers, indicates that they were in league with the train robbers and belonged to the same gang of ruffians.

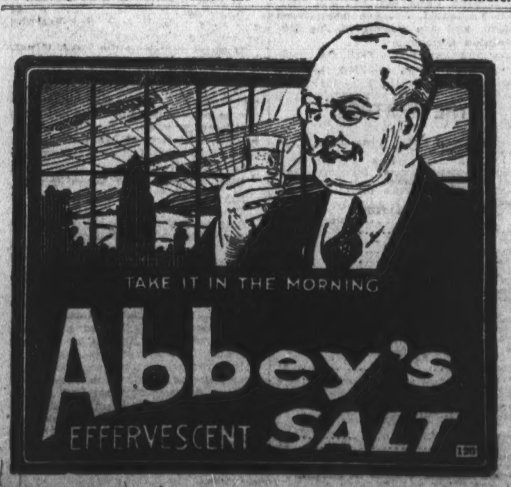

The pair captured at Cranbrook are Daniel Henrick and Peter Lauk. The third man involved in the robbery is described as a Russian, about twenty-five years of age, five feet four inches in height and weighing about 135 pounds. He was clean shaven and was wearing a dark, coat, faded blue jean overalls (cut off above the boot tops and with edges frayed) and a brown hat. He was carrying a grip containing the stolen property and two revolvers.

WOMAN IS BRUTALLY BEATEN BY HUSBAND

SASKATOON, Aug. 9.—With her head and body a mass of wounds, Mrs. Betsy Nash is lying in a critical condition in a local hospital, while her husband, Thomas Nash, a laborer, is held by the police on a charge of attempted murder.

As a climax to a violent quarrel, Nash seized a heavy mallet, clubbing his wife to within an inch of death.

The woman was the widow of a Canadian soldier killed in France and is the mother of five small children.

THEATRICAL BULLDOG AND DECEASED CAT

The Story of the Infringed By-Law, the Battle of Government Street and the $5 Fine in Police Court.

The even tenor of Government Street's peaceful way was rudely disturbed last Friday, in the vicinity of Pantages Theater, by a bold and unbridled theatrical bulldog; and the sequels, or sequelae, were respectively a police court summons and the untimely death of the well-known and highly respected house cat of Pantages. It was a sad story that was unfolded to Magistrate Jay in the City Police Court; a story that included the details of a brave but injudicious cat's vendetta against the entire race of bulldogs; and, incidentally, the invocation of the dread might of that obscure city by-law which ordains that no dog may pass unleashed upon his lawful occasions within the city fire limits.

The story was told to His Honor when Mrs. James Brown, an actress on the Pantages circuit, was charged with unlawfully allowing a dog to run at large within the proscribed limits for the unleashed canine. The lady was understood to plead that she was guilty of the technical offence; and it devolved upon City Prosecutor Harrison to supply the details of the canine crime.

Mr. Harrison contented himself with the brief and unromantic statement that a dog had created a slight disturbance on Government Street by killing a cat. But the story as afterwards developed was far more dramatic than was indicated by that cold legal description.

It appears that the lamented cat was in the habit of peacefully surveying the mundane affairs of Government Street from the strategic position afforded by the entrance of a neighboring store. Into the purview of that doomed and devoted cat, on the evening in question, there loomed the hated presence of the peregrinating, theatrical bulldog. As the unhappy sequel showed, it was not for that ill-advised cat to question why, it was only his, or her's—all the circumstantial evidence points to it having been a lady cat—to do and die. Whatever may have been the noble impulse which inspired the rash but heroic deed, the fact remains that that cat leaped upon the neck of the theatrical bulldog, and proceeded to dig himself—or herself, as aforesaid—in.

The dog was a bulldog. He was a theatrical bulldog. He was a visitor to the city. It is a reasonable assumption that he was unaware of the city by-law which required him at that moment to be pendant to a leading chain. He was doubtless a bulldog of unsullied lineage, and the high cost of living had hitherto meant nothing in his young life. Furthermore, there is no doubt that he had been, up to that tragic moment, an entire stranger to the cat. Moving, as he had done, among the best circles, he felt all a gentleman's resentment against an intruder upon his affairs to whom he had not been properly introduced.

Howbeit, the rest is silence and the pathetic dust of that deceased cat. But not until the peaceful welkin, or welkins of Government Street had resounded to the echoes of fierce and ensanguined conflict. Not until sundry stalwart members of the city police force had retrieved that aggrieved theatrical bulldog from amidst the scattered remnants of his brave but unequal foe. With the ultimate result that His Honor was of opinion that the cat had undoubtedly been the immediate cause of considerable disturbance; but that since there had been an infraction of the city by-law he would have to impose a fine of $5. The theatrical bulldog was not present in court.

ANOMALIES SHOWN IN GRATUITY AWARDS

Alleged Widows and Dependents of Fallen Soldiers Subjected to Unfair Treatment on Part of Government.

Considerable dissatisfaction is being manifested among returned men, according to The B. C. Veterans' Weekly, in connection with the recent order-in-council of the Dominion Government in dealing with the payment of war service gratuities to the widows and dependents of fallen soldiers. In each case there is deducted from the amount granted the whole of the 20 per cent pension bonus that is being paid at present. This deduction can be justified, it is claimed, on one score and only one, that of economy, and even that justification is not one acceptable to Canadian citizens, who can have no desire to economize at the expense of the loved ones of the men who fell overseas. The gratuity is not the full amount that would have been paid had the veteran returned, but is only the share that would have been paid direct to his dependents, a not too generous viewpoint in the first place.

Here is one specific case. The Government granted a certain widow a gratuity of $130 and deducted $84 because she had received the 20 per cent bonus for eight months. It is a good thing she was not receiving the new 50 per cent bonus, for under such a method of gratuity payment she would very nearly be in debt to the Government.

Again, although the Government finally granted the fairness of the claims put forward on behalf of Canadians who served in the Imperial forces, and paid them the difference between Canadian and British gratuities, the order-in-council arousing so much unfavorable comment does not include in its benefits the dependents of those men of Canadian domicile who fell in the Imperial forces. This further discrimination should not be allowed to continue against claims that cannot be denied with any pretence of justice.

Christianity was first introduced in England during the reign of Ethelbert, who died in 616.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL ON CHARGE OF THEFT

Soldier Brought Back From Seattle to Stand Trial on Allegations Involving Disappearance of Mess Funds

Robert Jardine Williams, a sergeant of the garrison at Work Point Barracks, was committed for trial in a higher court by Magistrate Jay in the Esquimalt Police Court yesterday on a charge of stealing $557.91, the property of the sergeants' mess at the barracks. Evidence was given by the commanding officer of the garrison and by a succession of warrant officers and sergeants. Accused was brought back from Seattle by Constable Andrews, of the Esquimalt police force, after the former had been arrested by the Seattle police as he was stepping off the boat from Victoria. The presence of more than a dozen khaki-clad soldiers gave the courtroom almost the appearance of a court-martial. Mr. E. V. Finland prosecuted on behalf of the Esquimalt police department. Accused was not represented by counsel, and reserved his defence.

Colonel Cecil B. Russell, D.S.O., commanding officer at Work Point Barracks, testified that the accused had been assigned to the duty of caterer to the sergeants' mess during the month of July. In that position, said the colonel, the defendant had had charge of the mess funds. Witness also said that there had been another case at the barracks recently of a man absconding with the canteen funds. Accused had had nothing to do with that occurrence, said the colonel.

Company Sergeant-Major George White said that he was secretary of the sergeants' mess during defendant's term of duty as mess caterer. Witness said that the accounts of the mess showed that accused had sold goods to the value of $661.92, during the month of July, but had turned into the secretary's charge only $104.21 in cash during that time. Included in a list of articles sold from the mess during July, as given in court by witness, was the interesting item of 3,096 bottles of Cumtox, which was said to be a beverage of the non-alcoholic variety. Witness also testified to the fact that accused was missing from the barracks when the time came to go over the monthly accounts. After the flight of accused witness had found many of the individual monthly accounts of the mess torn up and scattered about the floor of the mess canteen.

Seven warrant officers and sergeants then took the witness stand in succession, and testified to having paid their monthly personal accounts to the accused, for none of which sums had he given any accounting. The only further evidence for the prosecution was given by Constable Andrews, of the Esquimalt police force, who said that he had gone over to Seattle to bring accused back on a warrant after the Seattle police had arrested and held him on information sent from Esquimalt.

The magistrate explained the legal status of the case to accused, who thereupon announced that he would reserve his defence. Magistrate Jay committed accused for trial in a higher court. The case will probably be tried in the County Court.

Supposed Murder in Vancouver

VANCOUVER, Aug. 9.—The alleged victim of her husband's cruelty, Mrs. E. Lloyd, is dead, and Erskine H. Lloyd, Travelers' Hotel, is being held by the police pending an investigation into the woman's death. Mrs. Lloyd was found this morning in her room suffering from injuries alleged to have been caused by her husband's treatment. A few hours after removal to the hospital she died.

Part of Morinville Destroyed

EDMONTON, Aug. 9.—Fire, started by the explosion of gasoline in a poolroom, caused the destruction of one of the business sections of the town of Morinville, about twenty miles from Edmonton, Saturday afternoon. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

BE SUSPICIOUS OF TENDER GUMS

Be suspicious of any tenderness or bleeding of the gums. This is usually the first stage of Pyorrhea—an insidious disease of the gums that destroys the teeth and undermines bodily health.

Gradually the gums become spongy. They inflame, then shrink, thus exposing the unenameled tooth-base to the ravages of decay. Tiny openings in the gums form gateways for disease germs to enter the system. Medical science has traced many ills to these infecting germs in the gums weakened by Pyorrhea.

They are now known to be a frequent cause of indigestion, anaemia, rheumatism and other serious conditions.

So watch carefully for that first tenderness or bleeding of the gums. Try Forhan's immediately. It positively prevents Pyorrhea (Riggs' Disease) if used in time and used consistently.

An in preventing Pyorrhea—it guards against other ills.

Forhan's (For the Gums) cleans teeth scientifically as well. Brush your teeth with it. It keeps the teeth white and clean.

If gum-shrinkage has already set in, start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

DEFENDS EX-SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS

Mr. F. Giolma, M.P.P., Says They Are Much More Than Social Clubs—Replies to Invitation of G.A.U.V.

Correspondence which is self-explanatory has passed between the new political organization known as the Grand Army of United Veterans and Mr. F. Giolma, M.P.P. It follows:

F. Giolma, M.P.P.,
Victoria, B.C.;

Dear Sir,—At a recent meeting of the G. A. U. V. I was instructed to write to you to ask whether you would be willing to attend a meeting of the local branch of the organization in order to render to the members present an account of your stewardship during your period of service in the local House as Soldiers' representative.

I am aware that you have already once interviewed the representatives of the three other soldier organizations, but whereas the latter are all social clubs and not political in their constitution the members of the G.A.U.V., which is political, in its entirety would be glad to hear for themselves what you have to say in regard to the action taken by yourself in matters which affected the returned men. The meetings are held at present every Monday in the K. of P. Hall, North Park Street, at 8 p.m.

Trusting to hear from you at your earliest convenience and that you, if you accept the invitation, appoint as early a date as possible. I remain,

Yours faithfully,
L. McLEOD GOULD,
Secretary, G.A.U.V.

Victoria, B.C.

Mr. Giolma's reply follows:

L. McLeod Gould, Esq.,
Secretary, Grand Army of United Veterans, Victoria, B.C.,

Dear Mr. Gould.—Your letter of August 2 to hand via Cowichan Lake. Please convey to your organization my thanks for their (to quote your words) invitation for me to attend a meeting of your branch to render an account of my stewardship as one of the Victoria City members in the Provincial House, and at the same time kindly refer any of your members who are interested in my past official doings to the columns of the two local papers, both of which have always given excellent reports of my public actions, and also to the official sessional journals of the Provincial Legislature.

I am not a believer in self praise and am quite willing to let my public actions taken in the cause of returned men collectively speak for themselves. As for my private actions for the cause of individual men, so far as I am concerned they will remain private.

I wish in closing, to put myself on record as objecting most strongly to your statement that the other and older returned men's organizations, viz, the British Campaigners, the Army and Navy Veterans, the G. W. V. A., the Comrades, and the Imperial Veterans, are all social clubs, with the suggestion that they are nothing else. Knowing the yeoman service that these organizations have done in the past, are doing at present, and, I believe, will do in the future, for the returned men, I feel that the implied slight coming from you in your official capacity as secretary of a newly-formed organization which has yet to win its spurs is at least in very bad taste.

Yours sincerely,
F. GIOLMA.

BUILDING IN DISTRICT

New Homes in Preparation in the Neighborhood of Royal Oak in Rithet Farm Subdivision

Considerable building activity is now in evidence in the neighborhood of Royal Oak in connection with those portions of the Rithet farm subdivision which have been sold recently.

At the corner of Glandford Avenue and Saanich Road, Mr. John Greenwood and son, returned soldiers, and formerly of Nelson, have about completed a residence and other improvements representing an outlay of approximately $6,000 on a ten-acre tract which they acquired last Spring. Mr. M. A. McKinty, another purchaser in the subdivision, is about to start building a house at a cost of $3,500, while Mr. Jno. Bryden, who acquired one of the Rithet blocks is getting out plans for a residence.

Classes to train courting couples are suggested by the vicar of Mansfield, England.

City and District in Brief

No Quorum—Owing to the lack of a quorum the Saanich School Board meeting called for last night did not take place.

Cheaper Water Refused—The City Council last night approved a report from the Finance Committee, stating that nothing further could be done respecting the application of the Y.M.C.A. for the continuance of reduced rates for water.

Oak Bay Council—The Oak Bay Council met last night in the Municipal Hall, a number of measures being put through their first and second readings. In addition several by-laws were passed, among them those dealing with the poll-tax on non-taxpayers and the rebate granted former members of the forces in the payment of taxes.

Brigade at Duncan—On September 17 the Victoria Branch of the Navy League of Canada is sending a small detachment of boys and a few members of the band of the Naval Brigade to Duncan to give an exhibition of physical drill, knotting, splicing, etc., to demonstrate something of what the lads are learning under the skilled instructors they have.

Garden Fete Postponed—The James Bay Troop of Boy Scouts and Wolf Cub Pack have found it necessary to postpone their garden fete, which was to have been held next Saturday, the 14th, until the following Saturday, the 21st, when it will take place from 3 o'clock to 6, in the grounds of the residence of Mrs. Jones-Evans, Douglas and Michigan Streets.

Order of the Maccabees—Under the auspices of Victoria Review No. 1 a silver tea will be served at the home of Mrs. J. Phillips, 956 Fairfield Road, on the afternoon of Wednesday, August 11. Tea will be served from 2:30 until 6. A delightful musical programme has been arranged, and a cordial invitation is extended to all Maccabees and their friends.

Provincial Meeting—The monthly meeting of the Provincial executive of the Navy League of Canada is to be held on August 18, when several members of the Vancouver, New Westminster, Nanaimo and Cowichan branches of the organization will be present. It is anticipated that they will seize the opportunity of visiting the Boys' Naval Brigade camp which is now being held.

Alleged Theft of Heifer—Martin Walters, rancher, of Saanich, was arrested last night by Chief Brogan and Constable Hastings, of the municipal force, on a warrant charging him with the theft of a Jersey heifer. The warrant was issued on information sworn to by Alderman George Sangster, owner of the animal. The case will be proceeded with in the police court today.

Sale of Metchosin Farm—Another transaction of some importance in farming lands in the nearby district was the sale just put through by Messrs. T. B. Monk & Co. of 100 acres at Metchosin belonging to Lieut.-Col. Rogers, a retired Imperial officer. The purchaser was Mr. H. P. Johnson, a new arrival from Winnipeg, and the consideration was $8,500. The property is known as the old Turner farm.

Naturalization Applications — In County Court Chambers yesterday His Honor Judge Lampman had before him the personal applications for naturalization of Louis M. Peters and Walter Z. Cearley, respectively of Sidney and Salt Spring Island. Both applicants were formerly citizens of the United States. After approval by the learned judge these applications have to go to Ottawa for final consideration.

Prison Quarantined—Because of a case of smallpox at the Okhalla Prison Farm that penal institution is at present strictly quarantined, and no further admission of prisoners sentenced to serve time there will be permitted until the quarantine has been raised. In consequence two men held at the city police headquarters pending removal to the Mainland institution must be kept here for the time being.

Two Arrested—Fred Allan, drug addict and alleged shoplifter, was arrested yesterday by Detective Macdonald. Later in the day William McMorin, a companion of Allan, was taken in charge by Detective Heather and booked on a charge of being in possession of a quantity of cocaine. Allan claims to come from Winnipeg, while McMorin is a Vancouver man. Both will be arraigned in the police court this morning.

Winners in Guessing Contests—The unfinished guessing contests remaining from the garden party held last Wednesday by the W.A. to the G.W.V.A. were completed on Saturday, tickets being sold at the entrance to the City Market. The winners are announced as follows: The child's sweater was won by Mrs. Pierpont with ticket No. 201; the child's dress by Mrs. Waddington with ticket No. 25; and the rooster by Mrs. Myer with ticket No. 336, the weight of the bird being 26 pounds.

Cocaine Case Remanded—Wo Lung, a Chinaman, was charged in the city police court yesterday with being found in unlawful possession of cocaine. Accused pleaded not guilty and was remanded until today. Mr. W. C. Moresby, who is defending the man, applied for his release from custody on bail. Mr. Moresby stated that bail had already been fixed in the sum of $500, and then withdrawn on the representations of the police. After consulting Chief of Police John Langley, Magistrate Jay granted bail in the sum of $500.

A Political Prophet—Mr. Charles E. Campbell, of Vancouver, erstwhile president of the Vancouver Liberal Association, and at present a power in the ranks of that party at the Terminal City, was a visitor in the city yesterday. He visited the Legislative Buildings and conferred with Ministers. He has but recently returned from Ottawa, where he attended the meeting of the National Liberal Committee. Political prophecies issued by Mr. Campbell call for the return of the Liberal party at the next Dominion general election and the resumption of old-time party lines in matters political in this Dominion.

Strong Tea for Clemenceau—When James Smith stood up in the city police court yesterday on a remanded conviction of unlawfully retaining possession of a bicycle, Mr. Arthur Crease came forward and requested permission to testify on behalf of defendant. Mr. Crease said he had been defendant's officer at the front. Defendant had borne an excellent character and record in the service. He had been wounded in the head, and Mr. Crease believed that he was still suffering from the effects of that wound. Mr. Crease asked Magistrate Jay to deal with the case by way of a suspended sentence. His Honor again remanded defendant in order that he might have a personal talk with him.

"There Goes the Evidence"—Chas. A. Tuttle was fined $50 in the city police court yesterday on a conviction of being drunk while in charge of a motor car. Accused said he had been taking ginger and hot drinks. He was sick, but not drunk. Sergt. Fry, however, told a different story. He said that accused had smashed a bottle of whisky in the gutter when he was arrested, and had said, "There goes the evidence." As to this accused replied that he had been given the bottle by a friend, who said it would be good for accused. Accused did not know what was in the bottle, but was afraid there might be something in it when the police came to arrest him; so he had destroyed it. Magistrate Jay, in convicting accused, said that a drunken motor car driver was a public danger.

BAKERS URGE MORE MODERATE BREAD LAW

Ask for Addition of Clauses Respecting Short-Weight Loaves—Legislative Committee Will Act

The Victoria Bread & Cake Manufacturers' Association last night notified the City Council in writing of the additions desired in the present bread by-law. These additions are:

1. In the weighing of any bread under this by-law an allowance shall be made of half an ounce on each pound loaf, one ounce and a half on each three-pound loaf, two ounces on each four-pound load, and three ounces on each six-pound loaf, when the same has been baked more than twelve hours before said weighing, but otherwise no allowance shall be made.

2. No person shall be liable to the penalties prescribed by this order for making or offering for sale short-weight loaves unless in the case of a manufacturer there be found at least ten short-weight loaves, and in the case of a retailer there be found at least five short-weight loaves at one time.

Secretary Harry Ampblett wrote that the present by-law was "impossible," and that the stipulations asked were in force elsewhere. The matter was referred to the Legislative Committee and the Fair Weights Officer.

Heart Fluttering Easily Corrected

GOOD ADVICE TO FOLKS BOTHERED WITH PALPITATION, WEAKNESS, ETC.

If your heart flutters, be careful.

An attack is liable to come on at any time. Excitement, over-exertion or emotion may cause it.

If blood rushes to the head, if palpitation and short breath are noticeable, there's cause for alarm.

If you want a good honest remedy try Ferrozone. We recommend Ferrozone because we know it's just right for heart trouble. It cured A. F. Beattie, who lives at Allen Hotel, Bay City, Mich. See if your symptoms resemble these:

Some Symptoms of Weak Heart

Nervousness, Palpitation, Trembling, Dizziness, Sinking Feeling, Heart Faint, Short Breath, Weakness.

Mr. Beattie says:

"I was weak and miserable.

"I was subject to heart palpitation and dizziness.

"As I grew worse I began to have trembling and sinking sensations.

"Ferrozone strengthened my heart, gave vigor to my nerves, soon made me well. It's a great remedier."

By strengthening the muscles of the heart, giving proper circulation and causing a general rebuilding of the whole system, Ferrozone is bound to do good work in heart trouble; try it. 50c per box, or six for $2.50, at all dealers, or sent by mail from The Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

BIG DEAL MADE IN ISLAND TIMBER LANDS

Canadian Puget Sound Co. Acquires Areas at Cowichan —Difficulty in Buying Logs in Open Market

Faced with the necessity of closing down their local mill if unable to run it more economically, the Canadian Puget Sound Lumber and Timber Co., in an attempt to cut expenses, put through one of the biggest timber deals in many years, when they acquired the best stand of timber on the Cowichan Lake Road, from the Victoria Lumber and Manufacturing Co., of Chemainus. This area, consisting of the 991 acres contained in lot 29, Cowichan Lake district, is intersected by the road for three and a half miles, just before reaching the Cowichan River. On Tuesday men were on the ground looking it over, and a start will be made in the near future on the construction of camps and the actual work of logging off the tract.

The company has found it impossible, stated Mr. J. D. Kissinger, local manager of the firm, yesterday, to compete for logs in the open market and operate the mill at a profit, and it will make no further efforts in that direction. It is estimated that a saving of $6 on every thousand feet will be made possible by the acquisition of these logging areas. Referring to the general situation of the lumber market at present, Mr. Kissinger remarked that while the difficulty of the past few months in getting contracts continues, the mill will always be faced with the possibility of closing down. The bulk of the output, apart from a few small export orders, has been divided between the Canadian and American markets. The shortage of cars is now making it impossible to continue the United States exports, and no relief appears to be in sight. As for the Canadian situation, while orders are not now numerous, an increase is expected with the general picking up of business incident to the harvest season, sufficient, it is hoped, to keep the mill on a daily working basis.

OBITUARY NOTICES

LAKE—The death occurred Sunday morning at Jubilee Hospital of Mary Jane, wife of Mr. Let Lake, of James Island. The deceased was 53 years of age, and born in Wales, and had resided in Canada for the past twenty-seven years. The remains were forwarded yesterday afternoon by the B. C. Funeral Co., to Nanaimo, where they will be interred on Wednesday.

BUFFALO "COMING BACK" IN CANADA

Remains of Great Herds Which Once Roamed Western Plains Now Multiplying—Cause of Near Extermination

That the number of bison—the American buffalo—is increasing, and that the animal may have a future in supplying food to the people of at least a part of the continent is suggested in a pamphlet on "The Coming Back of the Bison," by Mr. Gordon Hewitt, consulting zoologist of the Commission of Conservation. The tales told of the abundance of this animal on the Western plains are so extraordinary as to suggest exaggeration. The animal, however, has had several historians, whose researches, designed to disclose the truth, go far to justify the statements of early travellers into the western wilderness. Among others, Dr. W. T. Hornaday, director of the New York zoological park, has contributed to the general knowledge of the greatest native American quadruped. Once common as far East as the State of New York, its chief ranges were on the Western plains. It travelled as far North as the Great Slave Lake in northern Canada and as far South as Texas and northeastern Mexico. The Indians found the herds a source of food and clothing and killed without thought of anything but their immediate needs, and the joy of destruction. It was when the white man took up the chase, as a matter of money-making, however, that the doom of the bison was sealed. Robes of buffalo hide were cheap and comfortable for winter travel, and throughout much of the eastern states and Canada every owner of a horse had one or two. The winter dress of the police in western cities generally included a buffalo overcoat. The Indians first, saw the danger of the slaughter and, when they had the power, sought to forbid white hunters from pursuing their vocation.

Senseless Slaughter

George Catlin, the great authority on the western Indians, in 1840 thought, from the number of robes marketed, that the slaughter of buffalo must have been from two to three million a year. In 1866 the construction of the Union Pacific Railway, crossing the continent, brought in new numbers of hunters and separated the one great herd into two. The southern herd, thought to contain some three million animals, had practically ceased to exist by 1875. The northern herd survived till 1885, the last shipment of hides going out from Dakota in 1884. Never, says Mr. Hornaday, was the destruction of an animal so completely brought about. By 1889 there were left in the United States and Canada, it was estimated, between 1,500 and 1,600 animals, some in captivity, some under government protection, a few in northern Canada running wild. Both the Canadian and U. S. governments took action to preserve these from extinction. In 1907, on the action of Hon. Frank Oliver, the Canadian government bought a private herd in the United States and had it removed to Wainwright, Alberta, where a reservation of about 160 square miles was established. The original herd was some 700 in number; in 1918 it had increased to 3,700. In the United States at the beginning of last year there were protected or wild about 2,100 head. The records suggest that much greater increase may be had, if there is a purpose to be served. The buffalo is in its native territory; it is hardy; it is a source of supply of food, buffalo beef being palatable and sustaining. There is much territory on which it can live that is not agriculturally profitable. The question is would buffalo do better than the range cattle and make more money for their owners or hunters. The matter will be decided on economical considerations. Meantime the story told of the destruction and the beginning of the coming back has more than temporary interest.—Montreal Gazette.

DEFINITE STAND IS MADE AGAINST "FRILLS"

Central Ratepayers' Association of Saanich Opposed to Domestic Science, Manual Training, School Gardening

At a meeting of the Central Ratepayers' Association of Saanich, in Tolmie School, last evening, with President J. C. Richards in the chair, it was decided to go on record as being against "frills," and the following resolution to that effect, moved by Mr. H. E. Tanner, was passed unanimously:

"That this Association go on record in favor of a candidate who is an advocate of strict economy, and opposed to domestic science, manual training, and school gardening."

Mr. Tanner spoke on the school by-law, and said that it should be amended so that each ward could have a trustee. This stand was strongly supported by ex-Reeve Nicholson and Mr. G. Stewart, as there are seven wards, and a representative was wanted in each one. It was decided to put the question to the school trustees, so that the matter could be taken up later.

A general discussion followed, Mr. Tanner declaring that too many subjects were taught at the present day, and that better results were obtained years ago. He suggested that swimming should be taught during the Summer holidays. The meeting was very quiet, and seemed quite unanimous, until the arrival of Mr. R. E. Collister, who took the floor and made a very bitter attack on the resolution that had been passed by the meeting.

Mr. Collister declared that he had been brought up in Ontario, where he learned gardening, but since coming to British Columbia he had learned quite a lot, notably at the Summer School. He declared that the saddest picture he had seen was a number of stumps in Saanich, and another side to the picture was the beautiful, cleared lands, but they were being cultivated by Chinamen. "It is very sad," he said, "if we have to confess that our sons cannot compete with Chinamen, who are going to run the white race off this coast."

Mr. Collister's remarks aroused indignation, and Mr. Tanner, in reply, said that the pioneers had made Saanich what it is today. It was no disgrace for a farmer to have a few stumps on his land. He thought that Mr. Collister had taken the wrong stand, and said that Saanich was being cleared by degrees.

Ex-Reeve Nicholson also took exception to Mr. Collister's statements, and said that Saanich was "one of the brightest gems in the Dominion of Canada." He objected to Mr. Collister running down the pioneers, for if it had not been for them there would be "no soft places for newcomers."

Mr. Emery was in favor of "frills" being cut out completely. Carpenters declare, he said, that manual training is no good. He also said that with the average lady teacher the profession is merely "a stepping-stone to marriage."

Mrs. A. E. Humphries said that some children did not have the chance to take certain subjects, and she did not think it was fair to deprive them of the opportunity. She did not approve of their being forced to take up everything that was laid down, but thought they should have a choice.

Mr. Cheatham thought that time was wasted through inefficient teachers. He wanted a Dominion curriculum, and thought it was up to the ratepayers to take note of what was going on and frame a policy. He declared that parochial schools, such as he had attended, showed better results than the schools of today.

LACOMBE, Alta., Aug. 9.—Edward Lasgroch, a Great War veteran, was killed, and Howard Dickens, driver of an automobile truck, was injured when a C.P.R. train ran into their vehicle at a crossing here this morning.

In the slang vocabulary of the L.W.W., an aviator is called a "porch-climber."

PLENTY OF KICK BUT LACKING IN QUALITY

Bootleggers Here Do Thriving Business Supplying Concoction to 'Frisco Boats, But It Is Mere Moonshine

Passengers on the boats travelling from San Francisco to Seattle and vice versa, and who call at this port, may be getting any amount of "kick" in the liquor which is surreptitiously smuggled on board here, despite the efforts of the local police to seize the stuff, but they are not getting anything noted for its quality, if the brew which has hitherto been seized here is any adequate sample of the bulk of the stuff got aboard.

Of late police activity has resulted in the seizure of a quantity of liquor intended to be disposed of by members of the crew of the boats. In practically every instance the stuff was a concoction of ingredients which could not under any circumstances pass as whisky properly socalled. It was "moonshine" without a doubt, of a quality that lacks nothing of the elements of the wonderful.

Most of the bottles of stuff taken here were those issued by well-known distilleries, but they had been refilled and resealed with labels that at first glance appeared to be the genuine label, though closer inspection shows that the labels were counterfeits. Even the authentic looking revenue stamp was a fake.

The boot-leggers who are supplying the boats with liquor are apparently doing a thriving business and managing to elude the police. Recently on arrival of the boat at Seattle over 300 bottles of so-called whisky were found by the immigration authorities at that point, the stuff having, it is said, been smuggled aboard the vessel at this port.

EMBRYO SEAMEN GO TO SUMMER CAMP

Procession of Boys' Naval Brigade Passes Through City Streets—Stiff Training for Next Two Weeks

An interesting little procession passed along some of the principal streets of the city yesterday afternoon. It was composed of about twenty-five boys of the Naval Brigade who were on their way to the Summer camp at the Rockside Farm, the Gorge, where they will spend the remaining weeks of August under canvas. The lads made a brave show in their neat uniforms, all being dressed alike, thanks to the Victoria branch of the Navy League, which was able to secure the required kits for the visitors from New Westminster, Trail and Nanaimo, who were not completely outfitted on arrival here. The procession was headed by the Victoria Boys' Brigade band, and proceeded to its destination via Government Street and the Gorge Road.

The camp comprises representatives of the following cities:

Victoria, 8; Vancouver, 9; Trail, 2; New Westminster, 2; Nanaimo, 4. A further two are expected from Vernon.

The Navy League is greatly indebted to Mr. Rylands, proprietor of the Rockside Farm, who has so generously placed his premises at the disposal of the organization for the purposes of the camp. In addition to this he has also made arrangements for the camp supplies to be secured on the most favorable terms possible, and another particular friend has been found in Mr. Thomas Plimley, who has placed a car at the disposal of the secretary for the use of the camp.

Sub-Lieut. Tribe has been placed in charge of the lads as camp commandant, and Lieut. Crowther, assistant secretary of the Provincial division, will also be in camp during the whole period that the boys are in training; Chief Petty Officer Ellis is acting as instructor, and Mr. Raynor is devoting the major part of his time to the enterprise.

The Camp

The camp has been pitched in an excellent spot, where drill can be carried on with consistency during the whole period of the boys' stay, viz., August 9-21. The military have very kindly lent tents, equipment and supplies, practically as in the case of the Boy Scouts, when the latter were stationed at Rodd Hill.

The camp will be run as closely as possible on the lines of a ship's quarter deck, with ship routine, and Mr. Tribe aims at turning out the boys an approximation of ship's petty officers.

The routine from day today will be much the same, the following being a sample:

6:00 a.m.—Turn out; lash up and stow.
6:30 a.m.—Cocoa.
7:00 a.m.—Physical drill.
7:30 a.m.—Breakfast.
8:15 a.m.—Colors.
8:30 a.m.—Camp inspection.
9:00 a.m.—Divisions and prayers; classes told off for instructions.
10:00 a.m.—Stand easy.
10:15 a.m.—Carry on.
11:30 a.m.—Pack up.
12:00 noon—Dinner.
1:30 p.m.—Fall in; classes told off for instructions.
2:00 p.m.—Stand easy.
2:15 p.m.—Carry on.
3:30 p.m.—Pack up.
3:45 p.m.—Tea.
5:30 p.m.—Evening quarters; defaulters.
6:00 p.m.—Supper; recreation.
9:30 p.m.—Rounds.
9:45 p.m.—Lights out.

The Variations

But there will be diversions. Something is being arranged for each evening by way of special amusement for the boys, lectures, concerts, etc. Mr. Ernie Down is taking charge of one of these evenings; the Army and Navy Veterans will arrange the programme for the evening of Friday, August 13; Saturday afternoon next will be visitors' day, with sports, etc., and "open door" will be the rule of the day, so that friends may enter and share in the proceedings; Sunday, August 15, will include Drum Head service in the morning. Rev. H. T. Archbold taking charge of this part of the proceedings. In the afternoon the boys will be taken for a drive around the seafront and through the Uplands, returning via Mr. George Bushby's, St. Charles Street, for tea. The Rotarians have very kindly undertaken to furnish the motor cars for this part of the entertainment, among those who have promised machines being Messrs. W. N. Kelly, J. A. Gardiner, R. W. Mayhew, Dr. A. N. Tanner, Wm. Moore and E. J. Down.

The programme for the evenings next week includes the following arrangements:

Tuesday, August 17: Community sing, conducted by Mr. Frank Sehl.

Wednesday, August 18, Provincial executive entertaining His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor at luncheon. Members of the Victoria branch executive will also be present on this occasion, and following luncheon His Honor is to make a formal inspection of the camp. In the evening Mr. E. J. Davis, the Provincial president, will arrange a concert programme.

Thursday, August 19, entertainment by Mr. Rylands.

Friday, August 20, farewell concert, in charge of Victoria branch.

LIBERAL LEADER WANTS ELECTION

Hon. Mackenzie King Repeats Arguments in Speech at Newmarket—Hon. R. Lemieux on Quebec's Attitude

NEWMARKET, Ont., Aug. 9.—The need of a representative parliament and a responsible ministry was the subject of an address delivered here Saturday by W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Opposition in the House of Commons.

The occasion was a Liberal picnic held under the auspices of the North York Reform Association, in the Agricultural Park, and was the first of a series of meetings in the interests of the Liberal party which will be held in North York and throughout the Province.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux and Sir Allen Aylesworth were the other speakers.

Asserting that the most important question at the present time is the right of the people to govern themselves through a representative parliament and responsible ministers, Mr. King made a demand for an immediate general election on the ground that either the Government is an entirely new administration, in which event it ought to get the approval of the people, or that it is an old administration, in which event it has long exhausted its mandate and has lost its original complexion and personnel.

Mr. Lemieux spoke at length of the olive branch held out by Premier Meighen to the Liberals of Quebec. "We from Quebec thank him very much for his language and hope that his acts will correspond with his words, but should Quebec Liberals decide to throw in their lot with the English-speaking Liberals, instead of the Tories, I am very much afraid it would be vastly different sentiments he would express," said Mr. Lemieux.

ENLISTING MEMBERS FOR THE NAVY LEAGUE

Mr. H. F. Helmsing, Provincial Secretary, Having Successful Visit Up West Coast—Finds Interest Alive

Mr. H. F. Helmsing's visit up the West Coast in the interests of the Provincial Branch of the Navy League of Canada, of which he is secretary, is proving fruitful in results. He has already enlisted quite a number of new members. First visiting the Powell River district, he was given a very enthusiastic welcome, his lectures being well attended, and a great many adults joining. From that point he went to Alert Bay, where interest in the league was very much alive, but as the holiday season was on and the cannery very busy the Provincial secretary deferred lecturing until some more suitable time.

Mr. Helmsing's next stop was at Ocean Falls, where he was fortunate in enlisting quite a few supporters. On the afternoon of Wednesday, August 4, he lectured to the children at Prince Rupert, on the evening of the same day speaking to an audience of adults. The Prince Rupert branch has been allowed to lapse, so the meetings held last week were something in the nature of reorganization meetings, the idea being to form a Boys' Brigade and put the society once more on a sound working basis. The Red Cross Society has been giving every support to Mr. Helmsing, and Judge Young, whose son, Lieut. Alex. Young, R. N. V. R., took part in the Ostend raid, has been acting as chairman for his meetings. Before returning the Provincial secretary, who has already enlisted over 200 new members, intends visiting Anyox and Prince George.

WEDDINGS

Cameron-Ingram

The following clipping from a Los Angeles paper will be of interest to a large circle of friends here, as Miss Ingram was a resident of Victoria for a number of years, only leaving here last September for Los Angeles: A very pretty home-wedding was celebrated Tuesday evening, July 6, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. La Folley, 146 West 32nd Street (formerly of Victoria, B. C.), when their their daughter, Miss Violet M. Ingram, was united in marriage to Clarence J. Cameron, of New York. Adjt. Spiller officiating. The bridal procession entered to the strains of the Wedding March, played by Mrs. Broyles at the piano. They were attended by Mrs. Coggan as matron of honor, and F. L. Coggan as best man. Little Eleanor Spillor acted as flower girl, and looked very sweet dressed in white, and carrying a basket of large white daisies. The bride, who is one of the most popular young ladies of the younger set, made a pleasing picture in her gown of white net over georgette crepe, with long silk maline veil, caught up with fragrant flowers, and carried a shower bouquet of palé pink Cecile Brunner roses, and white sweet peas. A dainty luncheon followed the ceremony, which was attended by thirty-five friends of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Cameron will be At Home after August 1, at their apartments, 543 1-2 Hope Street, Los Angeles, Cal.

Fong—Mok

A very interesting ceremony took place last evening at the home of Mrs. Hiscocks, 1046 Fisgard Street, when Miss Wing Kwong Mok, who had just arrived here on the S.S. Empress of Japan, became the bride of the Rev. Le Yung Moi Fong, of the Presbyterian Mission. Mrs. Hiscocks served an excellent luncheon, which was much appreciated. Rev. W. L. Macrae performed the ceremony.

Pomeroy—Turner

The news has been received here by Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Pomeroy, of 471 Admirals Road, Esquimalt, of the marriage on July 20, at Oakland, California, of their second son, Fred, to Miss Lily Turner, of Erdington, Birmingham, England. The bridegroom, who has many friends in the city, is a returned soldier, having been wounded while serving three years on active service in France with the Canadian Engineers. He was previously attached to the staff of The Victoria Colonist for some years. Mr. and Mrs. Pomeroy will make their home in Fresno, California, where Mr. Pomeroy is now on the staff of The Fresno Republican.

Naylor—Sparks

On Wednesday last a quiet wedding was solemnised in North Vancouver, at the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. G. Robb, old friends of the groom, when Lorena Alberta Sparks, daughter of Mrs. Thomas Sparks, Victoria, was united in marriage to Henry Ulard Willis Naylor, Victoria, son of Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Naylor, Toronto. The bride was smartly attired in a travelling suit of navy blue broadcloth velour with tafteta hat en suite. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. H. E. Davis, Los Angeles, Cal., who were a very chic suit of navy blue broadcloth with small Parisian hat. Dr. Follick, of Vancouver, supported the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Naylor left Vancouver Thursday morning for Toronto. Upon their return they will reside at Cordova Bay.

Georgensen—Aitken

A quiet but pretty wedding took place yesterday afternoon at Breadalbane, the officiating minister's residence, when the Rev. Dr. Campbell celebrated the marriage of Mr. Peter Georgensen, of Saturna Island, and Miss Ellen Louisa Margaret Aitken, of Mayne Island. The bridegroom was accompanied as groomsman by Mr. Robert L. Aitken, of Victoria. The bride, who was unaccompanied, was given in marriage by her father, Mr. John Aitken, of Mayne Island. She looked very pretty in a gown of white crepe de Chine and picture hat. After a honeymoon in this city Mr. and Mrs. Georgensen will make their home on Saturna Island, which is the bridegroom's native place, while Sooke is that of the bride.

GAVE A PROGRAMME AT SHAWNIGAN LAKE

Under Auspices of Cowichan Branch Delightful Entertainment Given by Victoria Talent for Navy League

Under the auspices of the Cowichan branch of the Navy League of Canada a delightful concert was given last Friday evening at Shawnigan Lake. Colonel Eardley Wilmot presided as chairman, and the programme comprised solos and duets by some of Victoria's most talented artists: Miss Eva Hart, Mr. H. J. Davis (provincial president), Mr. R. B. MacKenzie, vocalists, and Miss May Atkinson, violinist. Mrs. J. R. Gibson accompanied at the piano, and each and all of the artists were recalled several times, so much were their numbers appreciated.

The second part of the programme consisted of a performance of "Kitty Clive," presented by Mr. and Mrs. Legge Willis, Miss Wace and Colonel Eardley Wilmot, this dramatic entertainment revealing unusual talent on the part of all the performers also. The play was vastly enjoyed.

In the intervals between Parts I. and II., Rev. H. T. Archbold, of Victoria, on behalf of the Navy League, thanked all those who had kindly lent their services for the evening; also the Shawnigan Lake Women's Institute for providing supper. He referred to the work which was being done by the Victoria branch of the Navy League, particularly the Boys' Naval Brigade, which was now more than an airy ideal. It had now reached the practical stage where it was training and fitting boys to send to sea, a number already having joined the mercantile marine.

CLAIMS CITY STREETS ARE CLEAN ENOUGH

Dr. Price Flouts Suggestion That Salt Water Wash Be Used — No Summer Influenza Here

Medical Health Officer Arthur G. Price last night told the City Council that, in his opinion, there would be no advantage in washing Victoria's already clean streets, as suggested editorially in The Colonist. Dr. Price claims that so-called Summer influenza has not been prevalent this season.

Dr. Price's report follows in part:

"There has been a remarkable absence of flies this season so far; this is due to a great extent to the care that has been given to the cleaning and covering of manure pits. If the flies remain as scarce as they are at present and care is taken to keep all food protected against contamination by such flies as there are, and if house garbage is kept covered, the present healthy condition of the city and immunity from the severer infectious diseases should be maintained.

"There have been remarks made recently in one of the local papers upon the health of the city and the condition of the streets. The article in question is incomprehensible to me, and was published without any inquiries being made at the Health Office as to the health conditions of the city; it tells of the prevalence of children's diseases and 'Summer influenza.' There is no prevalence of children's diseases, in fact the infant mortality statistics as shown in this report show most remarkable conditions, namely, the lowest infant mortality rate of any city in Canada, together with an abnormally high birth rate, the greatest number of births on record in Victoria for one month having been registered in July. As to the complaint known as 'Summer influenza,' I have never heard of such a disease, and know nothing of it. The article mentions the condition of the streets, and suggests that they be washed with salt water. The Victoria streets are cleaner and better kept than those of any city I have ever been in, and I frequently hear remarks from visitors upon the cleanliness of the city. The bright sunshine, the breezes and the dry warmth in Summer which Victoria enjoys are the best germicides and guarantors for the healthfulness of our city, and I do not consider that anything is to be gained by washing the already clean streets."

SEAPLANES ARRIVE ON HARRISON SHIP

VANCOUVER, B.C., Aug. 9.—Two seaplanes for the Government station at Jericho Beach are aboard the Harrison freighter Crown of Galicia, which is due to arrive in Vancouver from Liverpool at the end of this month, under command of Captain Baird.

The two planes are F-5's, one of the largest types of flying boat in existence, and Major Macinnis, in charge of flying operations here, is wondering how the planes will be removed to the site across the bay. Equipped with two 225 horsepower Rolls-Royce engines, the machines are exceptionally heavy, and each boxed section weighs approximately ten tons.

DID HIM MORE GOOD THAN A LONG TRIP

Redman Searched Three Years for Relief From Dyspepsia Before He Found It

"Yes, sir, I've found a real medicine at last, for nothing but a real medicine could do what Tanlac has done for me," said Rudolph Redman, of 847 Kellog Street, Portland, Ore.

"During the past three years it seems like I have taken everything under the sun for a bad case of stomach trouble, but it was only recently when I took Tanlac that I got any relief. My appetite was so poor I didn't know what it was to be hungry, and even the little I did eat failed to digest properly, causing awful pains that seemed to run clear around my waist. I had severe headaches, and at times when I would stoop over and go to raise up everything would be blurred before my eyes, and I would nearly fall over. I was in a terrible run-down condition, and so nervous the least little noise would cause me to jump, so I came down to Portland from Canada thinking the change would do me good. However, it didn't, and my condition became so bad I had to lay off from my work from time to time.

"Finally, one of my friends got me to try Tanlac, and I want to say right now it certainly has done the work for me. My appetite is just fine, and I can eat anything I want without my stomach troubling me the least bit. The headaches and dizziness are all gone, my nerves are steady again, and I've been gaining in weight and strength right along. Why, I'm simply feeling fine, and I don't hesitate to endorse Tanlac after all it's done's for me."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, Druggist, and in Esquimalt at Lang's Drug Store. (Advt.)

INJUNCTION STOPS VANCOUVER TRIAL

VANCOUVER, B.C., Aug. 9.—The case against the liquidators of the Canadian Pacific Wine Co., in which a quarter of a million dollars' worth of liquor is involved, was proceeding this afternoon, when C. S. Arnold, one of the counsel for the defence, came into court and presented an injunction signed by Mr. Justice Murphy, of the Supreme Court, restraining the police magistrate from further prosecuting the case until after Tuesday next, pending a decision in the higher courts.

POWER FROM SEA WAVES

In a paper published in a recent issue of The College of Engineering, Tokio, Mr. I. Hirai describes some experiments made with a wave motor. He states that taking the coast line of Japan to be 1,500 miles in length, power amounting on the average to at least 5,000,000 h.p. is being wasted in actions which are merely destructive. The above figure is, he states, equivalent to two-thirds h.p. per linear foot of shore, and were it practicable to devise means for utilising it efficiently and without excessive capital expenditure the advantage would be very great. With a view to gaining some idea as to the feasibility of utilising some of the wave energy now wasted he erected within reach of the waves a board, 6½ ft. wide, and suspended from a hinge fixed 18.2 ft. above the lowest point of a bed of concrete, shaped to conform to the path of the lower edge of the swinging board. In order to keep down the cost of the plant the concrete bed was not carried down below low-water mark, its lowest point being in fact 0.8 ft. above mean sea-level. The tides at the site selected have a range of about 5 ft. at springs and 2 ft. at neap tides. The shore is shelving and large waves are broken up at a considerable distance from the shore, and even in storms the height does not exceed 6 ft. at 1,500 ft. from the shore line where they break. The waves formed as a consequence of this breaking were again broken up at 200 ft. from the shore line. On the other hand, even in the calmest weather there are always waves reaching the shore, having a height of about 2 ft., a length of 140 ft. and a period of from 5 seconds to 15 seconds. The pendulum board was loaded with stones, and it was found that the effectiveness of the device varied considerably with the load, but at the best the output was small, the best result being equivalent to the production of mechanical work at the rate of 810 ft.-lb. per second. This was obtained with a pendulum weight of 1,155 lb., a wave height of 2 ft. to 6 ft., with a mean period of 9.3 seconds. The amplitude of the swing ranged from 20.5 deg. to 47.5 deg.—London Engineering.

Careless Shampooing Spoils the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at any pharmacy. It's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

VISITORS WINNING IN WINNIPEG TENNIS

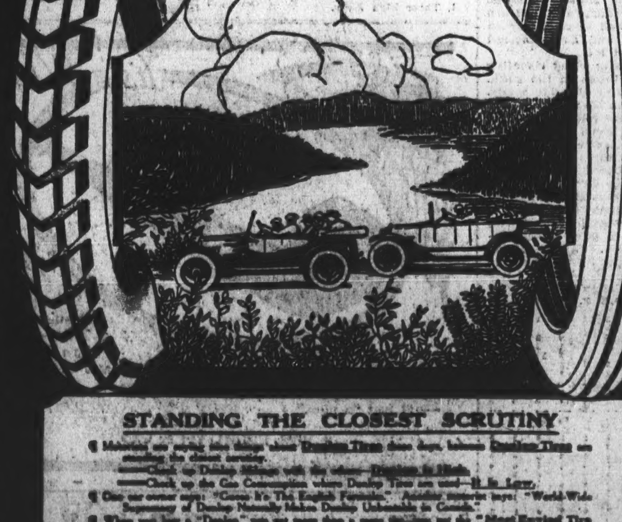

WINNIPEG, Aug. 9. — Visiting players from Vancouver, Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal, Seattle, Minneapolis and St. Paul came into action in today's Dominion lawn tennis championship draw, and for the most part survived the initial ordeal by disposing of the local aspirants against whom they were pitted. Excellent weather conditions prevailed, and some brilliant play was witnessed.

Rhodes, of Vancouver, had a stiff battle before Redford, one of the best local players, succumbed to his prowess, 6-3, 2-6, 10-8, while Milne, also of Vancouver, defeated G. G. Pirt rather easily, 9-0, 6-2.

The Seattle pair, Allen and Burrill, who are en route to the major tournaments in the East, both emerged successfully from their opening rounds, the former beating McArthur, of Winnipeg, 6-0, 6-1, and the latter defeating Galbraith, 6-3, 6-4.

Norton, the Minneapolis crack, had considerable difficulty in eliminating Dr. Wood, of Winnipeg, for after taking the first set 6-4, the second went 11-9 in his favor. Rennie, of Toronto, defeated Rossini, 6-3, 6-2. L. A. Frambois, the Quebec champion, won from Vic Patton, 6-4, 6-1. The only Eastern players to meet defeat were Dyment, of Barrie, Ont., and Cassels, of Toronto. Miss Bickle, Miss Best and Miss McDonald, all of Toronto, won their matches in the ladies' singles.

COWICHAN FETE WAS UNQUALIFIED SUCCESS

Held at Home of Capt. L. W. Huntington for Benefit of Local Branch of the G. W. V. A.

DUNCAN, Aug. 7.—"Lambourne," the lovely home of Captain L. W. Huntington, overlooking Cowichan Bay, was the scene of a very successful fete on Thursday afternoon in aid of the funds of the Cowichan branch of the Great War Veterans' Association.

Throughout the afternoon and early evening some three hundred thronged the grounds, which are charmingly laid out. It is indeed seldom that one is afforded an opportunity hereabouts to see a more beautiful home. True, as yet the place is too new to have attained its best, but on every hand one marveled at the wonders that had been achieved.

Stalls placed at strategic points dotted the grounds and tea was dispersed in the open air, while numerous side attractions afforded plenty of amusement.

Launches commanded by Capt. A. C. Lane and Messrs. Ruscomb Poole and A. C. Smiley plied the waters of the bay and took many for a pleasure cruise. Many tried their luck at clay pigeon shooting, in charge of Mr. G. A. Tisdal. Clock golf found its quota of adherents and was in charge of Mrs. W. H. Hopkins.

Mrs. Frank Parker, with Mr. Billy Parker, had charge of the guessing competitions. The ice cream stall was conducted by Mesdames Goddard, Dunkley and John Hopkins. Mrs. Barnett and Mrs. Dunkeld supervised the serving of the soft drinks, and the candy stall was in charge of Mesdames Jackson, Hatter and Kennett.

The raffling of two huge cakes, both beautifully iced in artistic design, the one bearing the design of the badge of the G.W.V.A., brought forth considerable interest, the one being won by Mrs. Col. Collard and the other going to Mr. L. Helen. Each of these gifts were spontaneous contributions, the one from Mr. J. H. Smith and the other from the chef of Smith's restaurant.

The home products stall, which in itself was a splendid exhibition of Cowichan grown vegetables and fruits, was in charge of Mesdames Garrard, W. L. B. Young and Mrs. G. A. Tisdal.

Mrs. Moss, Mrs. R. M. Palmer and Mrs. C. T. Gibbon, ably assisted by a staff of willing workers, had charge of the tea arrangements, while the Girl Guides from Cowichan Station and Duncan formed a very efficient staff of waiters. The tea tables were made lovely with multi-colored sweet peas and gypsophilia. Much pleasure was expressed by the committee in charge of the tea arrangements at the manner in which all parts of the district had come forward and contributed so generously. Greatly facilitating the work of the tea committee was the fact that the entire resources of "Lambourne" were placed at its disposal.

During the afternoon a musical programme was rendered, in which the following artists took part: Miss Clack, Mrs. C. W. O'Neil, Mrs. Ruscomb Poole and Captain L. W. Huntington.

Ever in popular demand was Mrs. Davidson, who had a steady stream of visitors anxious to get wee glimpses she could give them of their fortunes. Owing to the excessive heat it was decided to cancel the children's sports.

As a final climax that there should be no "left overs," Captain L. W. Huntington commandeered all stock left unsold and in a most successful manner as auctioneer disposed of the entire lot.

From five until eight one was afforded the pleasure of dancing on the lawn to Mrs. Martin's orchestra.

Much credit for the success of the undertaking is due to the ladies of the Women's Auxiliary, and the thanks of the committee goes out to the trades people of the district, who responded in such a generous manner.

PORT RENFREW NOTES

PORT RENFREW, Aug. 7.—Three companies started to build mills at Port Renfrew this Spring, but at present all are held up for want of labor and delay in getting communication and transport of machinery. The Ss. Maquinna, which is the only vessel of any size traveling up the coast with the mails every ten days, is loaded down to the water line both coming and going, and often delay is caused by the non-arrival of goods on time, thereby causing discharge of workmen, who become disgusted with conditions.

A box factory has a dozen returned soldiers at work building a mill on Mr. Baird's place, which looks like being a success. The machinery may be expected when it is possible to get a scow to transport it, but at present time all scows are fully employed, and the cost of tugs is high.

Several parties have visited the locality for trout and sea fishing this year, and have stayed at the hotel, which is now open. The place is noted for its fishing, both in river and harbor, especially in the Fall of the year, when there is continuous fine weather.

Recently the Provincial Government sent an engineer to survey the land route for a road to Jordon River. His report is out, and it is found that instead of this twenty-six miles of road, costing $400,000, as was reported by a previous Government survey, the cost even, with the increased wage, is figured at $200,000. It was the former figure which held up the road proposition. It is to be hoped now that the Government may see its way to put this road through, as it would open out a new and rich district for farm settlement, fishing and lumbering, and close to Victoria.

Owing to the low price of canned salmon the canneries on the coast are not running this year, and the one at Clo-oose and another at this place are closed down. The high price demanded by fishermen for cohoe and sockeye, a dollar each, makes salmon almost the luxury it is in the Old Country. A man trolling can make quite a respectable living these days if he can only find a market for what he may catch, which sometimes amounts to a canoe load of fish, but more often only two or three for the morning's work. Yet hope rises eternal in breasts of the followers of Isaac Walton.

PORT RENFREW WANTS GOVERNMENT WHARF

PORT RENFREW, Aug. 7.—A public meeting was held this week to discuss ways and means of getting a Government-owned wharf at Port Renfrew. Mr. McIntosh, the Dominion member, had done his best in the past to get this much-needed wharf, about which there has been a discussion lasting for years. The present wharf is privately owned and in the hands of the cannery. Though free wharfage is allowed to the settlers, they think they have a right to demand a public wharf, and suggest that the Government take over the present dock. Mr. R. H. Pooley, with the aid of Mr. Sherman, the owner of the cannery, which stands on leased ground, in a letter says the matter shall be put through at once. It was shown at the meeting that the property is at the present time owned by a ward in Chancery, and cannot be dealt with, except at great trouble and expense, by the Dominion Government.

ACUTE ECZEMA ON BABY'S HEAD

Face, Neck, Arms. Terrible Sight. Itched And Burned. Cuticura Heals.

"Baby was two months old when I noticed little pimples on her head. They kept getting worse and spread till her head, face, neck and arms were one mass of eruptions, burning, itching, and bleeding. I was told it was acute eczema. I had to sew up her arms and legs in linen. She was a terrible sight. For one year I had no rest night or day.

"We got Cuticura Soap and Ointment. In less than two weeks she began to mend and in a few months she was healed." (Signed) Mrs. Boorman, 243 McDonnell St., Peterboro, Ont., April 19, 1919.

Weather Lately Has Been Favorable, and Pack Already Reported to Exceed That of Last Year.

CLAYOQUOT, B.C., Aug. 6.—For the past ten days the weather has been gloriously fine. True there has been a little fog at night, occasionally lasting right up to the early morning, but the gentle westerly wind and the influence of the all powerful sun have soon cleared away the only obstacle to a perfect day. Guests at the hotel have been charmed by the fine weather and beautiful scenery, whilst most all have enjoyed the exhilarating daily dip in the briny. Trolling for spring salmon is still in progress, but the boats have to go out to sea some twenty miles and more. The sockeye run in the inlets here this season has so far exceeded the local catch of last year. It is stated the Clayoquot Sound Canning Company has already put up a larger number of cases of sockeye than at any time last year. This cannery has this season packed a good quantity of pilchards, springs and sockeye, and all indications point to a successful season's pack. It may be interesting to remark that among the sockeye catches were a few chum or dog salmon. This is very unusual so early in the year and may mean an exceptional early run of Fall fish.

Among the latest arrivals registered at the Clayoquot Hotel are the following: Messrs. F. E. Leach, E. H. Leach, J. Angus, H. H. Bayett, Miss H. S. Barton, of Vancouver, and Messrs. H. B. Price and Silas P. Silverman, of Sidney Inlet.

The S.S. Maquinna reached this port on Tuesday morning with more than a full complement of passengers and a considerable quantity of freight. Many passengers, being unable to obtain stateroom accommodation, were quite satisfied to use the very comfortable chairs in the spacious and beautifully furnished social hall of this fine boat. The passengers were mostly visitors making the round trip, for which the C.P.R. has announced a very special low rate.

DOCTOR PRESENTED WITH GOLD BADGE

A presentation of a solid gold badge was made to Dr. C. T. Hilton at the regular semi-monthly meeting of the Alberni District branch of the G.W.V.A., on Tuesday night, Major R. J. Burde, M.C., performing the ceremony on behalf of his fellow members. Major Burde referred to the war record of Dr. Hilton and to the work he had done in assisting to establish the G.W.V.A. in this district, he having been the first president and continued in that office for two years. In the war zone and at home Dr. Hilton had endeared himself to the soldier by his ever ready, practical and sympathetic interest in his physical comfort and material welfare. As the major handed the badge to Dr. Hiltion there was loud applause from the members present. The doctor bashfully thanked his comrades for their kindness, and said he would always regard the badge as one of distinction. Since the termination of the war there had been much to do in the way of re-establishment and he felt it his duty to respond, as far as possible, to every call made upon him in this connection.—Port Alberni News.

All these transactions were conducted through Messrs. J. H. Whittome & Co., Ltd., Duncan.

Many Tourists Arrive

NANAIMO, Aug. 9.—Motor tourists are arriving in increasing numbers, nineteen cars being Friday's record, one of them hailing from Michigan.

Half a Pineapple For One Dessert

In Jiffy-Jell desserts the fruit flavors are abundant. For instance, half a pineapple is crushed to make the flavor for one pint dessert. This is done in Hawaii from fruit too ripe to ship.

All Jiffy-Jell fruit flavors are made from condensed fruit juice. They come in liquid form—in vials—a bottle in each package. That is true of no other quick gelatine dessert.

A few cents will serve a real-fruit dessert for six people. No artificial flavor, no saccharine. It is the most delicious fruit dessert available, and it comes in ten choice flavors.

CONNAUGHT SOCCER NO FURTHER AHEAD

Western Teams Have Left for Home, Leaving Others to Worry It Out After Week's Indecisive Play

TORONTO, Aug. 9.—After completing the first week of the Connaught Cup schedule, the teams battling for the Dominion Soccer championship are no further ahead. Fort William beat Hamilton; Hamilton won from Winnipeg, and the latter beat Fort William Saturday by a score of 3 to 2. The two Western teams stated positively on Saturday that it was impossible for them to stay longer, and left Saturday night for home.

Many are of the opinion that if the D.F.A. had ordered a game for Monday, one of the teams at least would have remained to play Hamilton. However, the D.F.A. made a new draw, which resulted in Hamilton getting a bye.

The two Western teams will play in Winnipeg on August 21 and the winner will play Hamilton on September 4 and 6 at Montreal, total goals in the two games to count.

CALIFORNIAN WINS NORTHWEST TITLE

Howard Kinsey Is the Tennis Champion as the Result of Tournament at Tacoma—Defeated Weinstein

TACOMA, Aug. 9.—Howard Kinsey, of Southern California, was crowned 1920 champion of the Pacific Northwest Saturday on the courts of the Tacoma Lawn Tennis Club, when he defeated Irving Weinstein, also of California, in the finals of the men's singles. By virtue of his victory Kinsey takes the famous Chester Thorne trophy to California, where it will remain until next year. The cup was presented in 1895 and must be won three times in succession before it becomes the permanent property of the holder. Kinsey has one leg on the cup and intimates he will be on hand next year to defend his title.

Kinsey defeated Weinstein in three straight sets, 8-6, 6-1, 6-2. After the initial set the final result was never in doubt. Weinstein led but once, having the edge, 4 games to 3, in the first round. After pulling out of a bad hole, however, Kinsey settled down and took things his own way. He was at all times master of the situation.

Miss Livingstone Wins

Miss Sara Livingstone won the championship in the women's singles from Mayme McDonald in straight sets. Both are Seattle players. Miss McDonald lost the first set after a strenuous battle, 13-11. Miss Livingstone broke through in the second set, 6-4. Miss Livingstone was presented with the Baker cup, which she has won on three occasions and which becomes her permanent property.

Wallace Scott, of Tacoma, and Howard Kinsey, of California, won the championship in the men's doubles when they defeated Phil Neer, of Portland, and Irving Weinstein, of California, in three straight sets, 6-2, 6-4, 6-3. Scott and Kinsey showed great team work and made a clean sweep of the match.

The women's doubles event went to Mayme McDonald, Seattle, and Mrs. Cushing, California, by default, Mrs. Bragdon and Miss Livingstone, both of Seattle, who had won their way to the finals, had to default because of a sprained arm that Mrs. Bragdon had suffered in the semi-final match played Friday evening.

Neer's Fine Showing

The mixed doubles match, which was the event of the day, turned out one of the hardest contested tilts of all the final events. Mrs. Cushing and Phil Neer won out after three sets of stellar play, 6-1, 6-4, 6-4. Miss McDonald and Howard Kinsey were the defeated contenders. They put up an excellent battle, winning the first set with apparent ease. They also led in the second canto, but Mrs. Cushing and Neer took a spurt at the psychological moment and pulled out with these. The third and deciding set brought forth some of the prettiest tennis of the whole tournament. Neer was there a million and it was his playing that was the deciding factor.

Cups were presented to all the winners immediately upon completion of the mixed doubles match by Chairman Pierre Denton of the tournament committee. The matches Saturday concluded the thirtieth annual tennis championships of the Pacific Northwest.

OLD COUNTRY CRICKET

LONDON, Aug. 9.—In county championship cricket, Middlesex with 377 runs, including Hearne's 175, beat Surrey by an innings and 33 runs. The result is disastrous to Surrey's championship chances.

Yorkshire much improved her position by defeating Worcestershire by an innings and 210 runs. Yorkshire declared their innings closed at 377 for seven wickets.

EVANS TO PLAY AT CHICAGO TOMORROW

TOLEDO, Aug. 8. — Charles ("Chick") Evans, Chicago, the only golfer to hold the national and amateur golf titles simultaneously, will seek new honors in the international golf tournament this week. In a post entry list of forty-four names, his name was included.

The added stars will play their first eighteen-hole qualifying round Tuesday.

NATIONAL TENNIS

Small Army of Officials Being Recruited for Championships at Forest Hills

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—The committee in charge of the thirty-ninth annual tournament for the tennis championship of the United States, which begins at Forest Hills, August 30, is recruiting 200 officials for the matches. A notable list of players will appear. In addition to William T. Tilden, William T. Johnson, Richard N. Williams and Charles S. Garland, there will be other American tennis stars.

The Veterans' championship for men over forty-five, the father and son doubles and the junior and boys' championship will be played.

UPSET COMING IN LEAGUE STANDINGS

Battle Royal Promised for Leading Positions in Both of the Majors—Present Leaders Are Losing Ground

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—An upheaval is due in both major league standings at the present rate of play of the leading teams. While the Brooklyn and Cincinnati Nationals and the Cleveland and New York Americans are losing ground, the New York and Pittsburgh Nationals and Chicago Americans are proceeding at a pace that promises a battle royal in both leagues.

Brooklyn held on to first place in the National League yesterday only by administering the first defeat Pittsburgh suffered in seven games. Brooklyn's pitchers were carried through by the heavy hitting of their team mates in several contests last week.

Cincinnati failed at the bat in the New York series, but succeeded in taking three games out of four from the tail-end Philadelphians. New York climbed into third place yesterday by defeating Chicago. The New York pitchers were invincible last week until Chicago batted Nehf out of the box Saturday, breaking New York's winning streak of six games. Boston also is getting good pitching, but is handicapped by light batting. St. Louis was unable to turn its numerous hits into runs.

In the American League Cleveland was forced to call frequently on its two star boxmen, Coveleskie and Bagby, but the Indians won only half their games. Today the league leaders begin a series with their eastern rivals, New York. The Yankee sluggers could do little against the Chicago pitchers, dropping three games out of four, and were held even by the Detroits, including yesterday's shutout. Chicago found a more worthy opponent in Boston, winning by a one-run margin Friday and breaking even on the series by winning Saturday. St. Louis went into fourth place by outplaying Washington, after splitting four games with Philadelphia.

DINGHY RACE SERIES COMPLETED YESTERDAY

Mr. Hotham, of Royal Victoria Yacht Club, Wins Devonian Cup—Two Trophies Won by Mr. Ashe

The third series of dinghy races for the Warlow Cup were completed Saturday afternoon at Cadboro Bay, two races being sailed in the light and fluky wind. They were, however, very closely contested.

In the first race Mr. Hotham won from Mr. Ashe by one minute, closely followed by Major Buck and Mr. Butler.

The second event was won by Mr. Ashe, with Mr. Butler close second; Mr. Hotham finished two seconds later, with Mayor Buck about a length behind.

This finishes the season's races, the Devonian Cup being won by Mr. Hotham, and the Warlow Cup by Mr. Ashe, who also wins the Genge Cup for the greatest number of points for the season, making 73, Mr. Hotham second with 72 and Messrs. Butler, Buck, Crease and Musgrave well in the running.

Racing pennants will also be presented to the winner of each race.

LOCALS WHIP YAKS IN HARD-HITTING AFFAIR

Six Pitchers Are Used Up in Opening Battle at Stadium With Tealy's Men—Final Score, 13-9

Those who journeyed to the Stadium yesterday expecting to see Tealy Raymond's Yaks and Bill Leard's Capitals engage in a tight battle, typical of the best that the rival aggregations can serve up when so disposed, got a severe jolt.

Instead of seeing the two ball clubs, all primed for the sprint down the home stretch to the pennant, stage a snappy display replete with thrills, the fans impatiently watched six pitchers go to pieces under a deluge of hits in a game that lasted considerably more than two hours.

The Victorians slammed their way to a 13-9 victory. They broke away in the first inning and piled up five heart-breaking runs off Pat Eastley, Victoria's old-time jinx. They added five more in the fifth and drove him to ambush, and then they started to hammer Hill, whom Tealy chose to relieve Eastley. In the seventh Dave Williams was called in to pitch for the Raymondites. Dave was wearing some dazzling white stockings, and Leard announced he would protest the game if he lost, on account of said stockings not being part of the regular Yakima uniform. Barring his socks, though, Dave was well behaved and harmless. He did manage to hold the slugging Capitals and finished up with his fast drop mowing down Leard's batters in quick order.

Cy's Sixth Straight

Cyrus Young gets credited with the win—his sixth straight—but he was only one of three heavers that worked for Victoria. He went along nicely for five innings with the Yaks bowing at his feet, then he lost everything, and four singles in a row, followed by a four bagger, chased him to the bench. Russell James replaced him, but lasted only an inning, and Ray Alexander was called in to finish. It was Aleck's first workout before the home crowd this year, and, while inclined to being erratic, managed to escape serious trouble.

Umps "Red" Held was welcomed back yesterday, and he lost no opportunity in making his presence known. He let everyone know that he was master of ceremonies and boss of the field. When Raymond and Leard and other lesser lights tried to dispute and argue, "Red" turned on them and in a tone clear and threatening told them to shut up. When "Doc" Cadman protested after being made the victim of the ancient "hidden ball" trick at the hands of Carty Elliott, "Red" ordered him out of the yard. Several times "Red" stopped proceedings in order to enforce certain ground rules that other umpires had ignored. As a result of all this there was none of the prolonged crabbing that damaged the last series here.

Home Run Starts Action

The first action in the game was staged by Charlie Gorman, the peppery Yakima second baseman, who knocked the first ball pitched by Young over the fence for four bases. This gave the locals an unpromising start, but it was nothing to what Pat Eastley was handed in Victoria's term at bat. Church took first on Harrigan's wild throw. Leard doubled, and "Toots" Brown brought in two runs with a two-bagger to left field. Carman was hit by a pitched ball, and Dempsey got to first when Eastley handled his grounder and tossed out Brown at third. Zienke mopped up with a home run.

Young went home with Victoria's sixth run in the second. He walked, was sacrificed to third after Elliott singled, and scored on Leard's hit to centre.

Add Five More

Five more tallies were added by the Victorians in the fifth. Brown started the onslaught with a home run. Carman singled, and Dempsey poled out the second homer of the inning, driving in the ninth run and sending Eastley to the scrapheap. Hill replaced him and celebrated his entry by hitting Land. Then he walked Elliott and Church, filling the bases. Land scored on Cadman's wild return to Hill. Elliott and Church worked the double steal, and Elliott scored on Brown's infield hit.

Young, after going along smoothly for five innings, broke in the sixth. Callan, Cadman and Hill hit safely. Callan scored when Gorman was safe on a fielder's choice that put out Hill at second. Harrigan's hit scored Cadman, and Lafayette laced out a home run, adding three more counts, and convincing Leard that Young was through for the day.

Bases on balls, plus Hill's single to centre, gave Yakima two more in the seventh. An error by Zienke, two singles and a wild pitch added another in the ninth. Wild pitching helped Victoria get its two runs in the seventh.

ENTRIES COMING IN FOR P.N.A. SWIMMING

Captain Cook, Formerly of Camp Lewis, Will Revisit Victoria and Act as Judge of Championship Diving

Entries are beginning to come in for the Pacific Northwest swimming, diving and water-polo championships, which are to be held under the auspices of the Victoria and Island Athletic Association at the Gorge next Saturday afternoon and evening. The entry of Miss Katherine Brown, of Seattle Y.W.C.A., was received by Mrs. W. H. Davies this morning. Miss Brown ranks next to Mrs. Arthur Wagstaffe, Seattle's well-known speed marvel. She is entered for all the free style events and the ladies' fancy diving. Her voluntary dives are as follows: Straight front, back dive, front jackknife, back jackknife, swan, forward dive, full twist.

Another letter pertaining to the championship meet was received today from Captain Cook, Western director of athletics of the U.S. War Community Service, of New York. Captain Cook has kindly offered his services gratis in any capacity for the big championship event, which is to be staged next Saturday. Needless to state, his services have been accepted and he will act in the capacity of judge for diving. Captain Cook last visited Victoria in charge of the Camp Lewis soccer team. The Victoria entries are now putting in some hard work in preparation for the big event. Miss Audrey Griffin, Canada's premier lady swimmer, is now in the pink of condition, and will rest up in her training after tomorrow. Audrey is again going after the cup, which will be presented to the athlete scoring the greatest number of points at the meet. It is also expected that she will make her best showing in the 500 yards event. Audrey will also play as half-back in the ladies' water-polo team.

NEWPORT TENNIS

Members of the Davis Cup Team Scheduled to Play Today—Californians Win

NEWPORT, R.I., Aug. 9.—The first day of play in the annual lawn tennis tournament at the Newport Casino saw no upsets in either the singles or doubles, and tonight interest was centred in the play of members of the Davis Cup team, scheduled for tomorrow.

The team failed to arrive from New York in time for the opening, but left during the day, with the exception of William T. Tilden, II., who decided not to play.

In the doubles N. W. Niles and A. S. Dabney and Willis Davis and Roland Roberts, the Californians, had difficulty in disposing of their opponents, although they won in straight sets.

Connaught Cup Soccer

TORONTO, Aug. 9.—Winnipeg Britannias defeated the C. P. R. Fort William soccer football team in their game played here Saturday by a score of 3 to 2. The game was a Connaught Cup fixture and the victory of Winnipeg ties up the series and necessitates further play-offs. Had Fort William won they would have played the Westinghouse team of Hamilton in the finals.

Police Wrestlers

WINNIPEG, Aug. 9.—After wrestling two hours and 45 minutes actual time here for the police championship of America, Constable Tom Johnson, of Winnipeg, and Sergeant John Albrecht, of Minneapolis, failed to come to a decision, and the match was stopped by agreement, both

LASKER WILL PLAY CAPABLANCA FOR CHESS TOURNAMENT

THE HAGUE, Aug. 9.—Dr. Emmanuel Lasker, world's chess champion for 26 years, and Jose R. Capablanca, Cuban champion, today agreed to play a match of 24 games for the world's championship in Havana next January.

BEAVERS DEFEATED BY TWILIGHT CLUB

BELLINGHAM, Aug. 9.—The Pelegren team of the Bellingham Twilight League, defeated the Vancouver team of the Pacific International League, here yesterday, 11 to 8. The Twilighters scored six runs in the final inning.

Score:	R.	H.	E.
Vancouver	8	9	4
Pelegren	11	18	7

Batteries — Mallory, Johnson, Thompson and Patterson; Corbin, Chamberlain and Jacobson.

YAWL MAKES RECORD ATLANTIC PASSAGE

Enthusiasts Make Non-Stop Run Across the Pond to Be Present at Cowes for Motor Boat Races

COWES, Isle of Wight, Aug. 9.—What is believed to be a record passage across the Atlantic for a 35-foot yawl was made by the Typhon, which arrived this morning after making a non-stop run, it is claimed, from Cape Race, Newfoundland, to Bishop's Rock, Sicily Islands, a distance of 2,100 miles, in 15 days and 9 hours. Passengers on the boat were Frederick Baldwin, of Toronto; Jas. Dorsett, of Washington, and Wm. Dutting, of New York. They said they encountered heavy seas and came through well, claiming a record passage in their effort to reach Cowes in time for the international motor boat races, which begin here tomorrow.

TENNIS CHAMPIONS CROWNED AT TACOMA

TACOMA, Aug. 9.—Howard Kinsey, champion of Southern California, was crowned 1920 champion of the Pacific Northwest here on the courts of the Tacoma Lawn Tennis Club, when he defeated Irving Weinstein, also of California, in the finals of the men's singles, 8-6, 6-1, 6-2. By virtue of his victory Kinsey takes the famous Chester Thorne trophy, which has been competed for since 1895.

Miss Sarah Livingstone won the championship in the women's singles from Miss Mayme McDonald, 13-11, 6-4. Both are Seattle players.

Wallace Scott, of Tacoma, and Howard Kinsey, of California, won the championship in the men's doubles when they defeated Phil Neer, of Portland, and Irving Weinstein, of California, 6-2, 6-4, 6-3. Scott and Kinsey showed great team work, and made a clean sweep of the match.

The women's doubles event went to Mayme McDonald, of Seattle, and Mrs. Cushing, California, by default. Mrs. Bragdon and Miss Livingstone, both of Seattle, who had won their way to the finals, had to default because of a sprained arm that Mrs. Bragdon had suffered in the semi-final match played Friday evening.

Mrs. Cushing and Phil Neer won out in the mixed doubles after three sets of stellar play from Miss McDonald and Howard Kinsey, 1-6, 6-4, 6-4.

KNIGHTS WILL MEET ELKS ON WEDNESDAY

Win for Latter Will Give Them City Championship and Peden Cup—Knights' Success Would Be Popular

The followers of the amateur baseball league are looking forward to the next scheduled game, which will be played at the Stadium on Wednesday evening, when the Knights of Columbus tangle with the Elks. This will be the fourth occasion on which these teams have met, and so far the Elks have won two and lost one. From the Elks' point of view this will be a very important game, as, according to the league standing, they only require this game to give them the city championship and the possession of the Peden Cup for this season. A defeat will mean a tie with the Colcrieks for the top position.

The other teams in the league will all be out in force to root for the Knights, as a win for them would give the others another chance for the pennant. A win for the Elks would also give them the right to meet the Mainland champions for the British Columbia title, and with a trip to the Mainland in sight they will make every effort to cop this game.

They are taking no chances on the match; they are doing considerable work and a practice game has been arranged for tomorrow evening at the Royal Athletic Park, when they will meet the C. P. R. team. The latter also have an engagement in the Terminal City, and this game will give both teams a well needed workout.

WESTERN PLAYERS WIN AT WINNIPEG TENNIS TOURNAMENT

WINNIPEG, Aug. 9.—In the morning play of the Canadian tennis championships today all the visitors won their games quite handily, though they were pressed to uncover some fine play to win. Milne, of Vancouver, disposed of A. G. Pirt; Rennie, of Toronto, had to extend himself to defeat Rossini, while Burrell, of Portland, Ore., won from Galbraith, of Winnipeg.

The results were:

Milne, Vancouver, defeated A. G. Pirt, 6-0, 6-2.

Rennie, Toronto, defeated Rossini, 6-3, 6-2.

Burrell, Portland, defeated Galbraith, 6-4, 6-3.

DEFEAT OF CHAMPION WAS STERLING FEAT

Miss Joyce Wethered, by Beating Miss Leitch, Brought Off Historical Performance for Women's Golf

There is little doubt that in Miss Joyce Wethered, the new English (not British) golf champion is a coming British champion, for in her first attempt at championship honors she not only won the title, but defeated the redoubtable Miss Cecil Leitch, who only a few weeks before had won the British title for the second time and was considered unbeatable.

Not merely did Miss Wethered beat the champion, but she accomplished this feat in a 36-hole final after being four down at the end of the first round and six down with 16 holes to play and still four down with only nine to play. To win back these four and then issue a victor over the greatest golfer the world is said to have produced was something more than wonderful—it was close to the miraculous.

Playing the in-half of the afternoon she won five holes in a row from her celebrated opponent and showed herself capable of facing such a situation before a huge gallery without the slightest embarrassment or nervousness. It was, as The London Chronicle says, one of the greatest performances ever accomplished in women's golf, and when the girl won on the thirty-fifth green by 3 to 1, there was an uproar such as is not usually associated with feminine golf.

Miss Wethered is only 18 years old and is the sister of Capt. R. H. Wethered of the Oxford University golf team, himself one of the most promising of Britain's young golfers.

UNIQUE RIFLE MATCH FOR SWISS AND YANKS

Smallbore Team Will Try Conclusions Against Opponents Shooting With Military Rifles of Their Country

A decidedly unique rifle match with an international interest attached has just been arranged between the representatives of the American Smallbore League and the Shooting Societies of Switzerland. This match will be staged during the first 30 days of September, with the American team shooting at the league's national range at Tenafly, N.J., and the Swiss team firing their record shots near Berne, Switzerland. The details were arranged by Frederick Muller, representing the Swiss Shooting Societies, and Captain Roy S. Tinney, executive officer.

For the first time in the history of international rifle matches a selected team using the .22 calibre long rifle will compete with another picked team using the standard military arm of their country, with conditions as nearly equal as possible.

Mr. Muller is known as a former member of the Swiss legation in the United States and for many years identified with the shooting societies of Switzerland, came to America a few weeks ago by invitation of the executive committee of the American Smallbore League to arrange the details of the match, and left for Switzerland with the signed papers on the steamer Pesaro.

The match will be preceded by elimination shoots in both countries, covering a period of four weeks, by members of each organization. The nominations of the teams will be announced about the middle of August. The results of the scores will be cabled to the respective legations in each country. The match will be a potent factor in stimulating interest in smallbore rifle shooting, and is but one of many exceedingly interesting matches arranged by the committee of the American Smallbore League.

Both captain and coach for the American team will be selected later. Members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars rifle clubs will enter many riflemen in the elimination trial, and from the timber being developed it is expected that several will earn a place on the team.

The terms of the match are as follows: Each country to be represented by 10 men and two alternates, each man to fire 20 consecutive shots, slow fire, no sighters. Any sights without glass will be permitted. The scores from the other side are to be cabled to the Swiss Legation at Washington and from this side to the American Legation at Berne.

TURF GAME BOOMING IN ALL QUARTERS

Canada, United States, England and the Argentine All Experiencing Record Season in Great Sport

Only the other day the American race course did pretty well when it gave away an average of $2,000 or $2,500 a day in prizes.

Now that amount is simply a bagatelle, and the day's giving at any of the leading race courses is now three and sometimes four times as great as it was only a year or two ago.

Take the Spring meeting given at Pimlico, Maryland's greatest race course, last month. In that time no less than 105 races were run, an average of seven a day.

The result in money to owners was a total distribution of $268,519, being the great daily average of $13,901.27, a truly remarkable contrast with five years back, when the total raced for at the combined Spring and Fall meeting of the Maryland Jockey Club was $119,874.

At Churchill Downs, too, more money was given away this Spring than ever before in the history of that course, and the patronage was greater than ever before.

And the success at Pimlico and Churchill Downs this year appears to have extended to Latonia, where the greatest race meeting ever held at the historic Milldale Valley track is now in progress. This year the early meeting at Latonia extends through a period of thirty-one racing days. The pick of the equine stars, as well as a majority of America's well known jockeys are now there.

Booming in Canada

The racing boom in Canada continues and the meetings are beating attendance and all other records.

At the opening of the meeting at Woodbine Park, at Toronto, Canada, there was splendid evidence of the boom in racing even in the Dominion, when the biggest crowd in the history of that course was in attendance.

Among the attractions on the opening day's programme were the Woodstock plate, with $3,000 added; the Juvenile stakes, with $2,000 added, and the Queen's Hotel cup handicap, with $1,000 added.

As at Woodbine Park at Toronto, Thorncliffe Park, the rival course there, also broke all attendance records when it opened its gates. In fact, despite the threatening weather, the crowd was the largest that ever witnessed an afternoon's racing at Thorncliffe.

Some idea of the boom in racing in England and the present value of the thoroughbred is given by the news from there that Lord Astor's colt Buchanan has just been valued at $350,000 for insurance purposes. Of this amount $200,000 has been placed at Lloyd's. This is a record sum for that association of underwriters. It was previously held by Willis Sharpe Kilmer's colt Sun Briar.

And besides the boom in racing in America and Europe, the sport is going to have its greatest racing season in the Argentine this year, where the early race meetings have been magnificently attended.

ARRESTS ARE MADE IN KIDNAPPING CASE

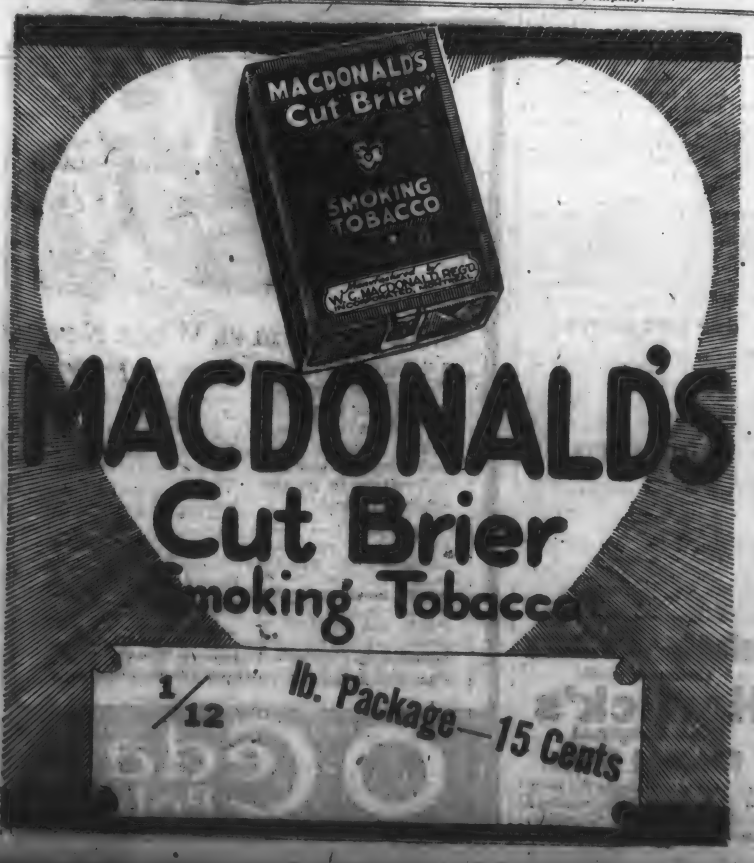

ESTEVAN, Sask., Aug. 9.—Provincial police today made five arrests following the "kidnapping" of O. M. Christophers, the One Big Union organizer, who was "run out" of the town on July 3.

The following have been arrested as being connected with the "kidnapping," and are held on $10,000 bail: Capt. Sam Derbek, president of the Estevan branch of the G. W. V. A., Tom Munro, a farmer, Corp. George Hunter, of the Saskatchewan provincial police, Jim Clarke and Ames Gough. The arrests followed investigation by the provincial police since a delegation from the One Big Union at Winnipeg came to Regina and asked the Attorney-General to hold an investigation.

Sensational developments are expected to follow the preliminary hearing at Bienfait on Thursday.

Orientals Arrested—In a raid upon Chinese premises at 611 Fisgard Street last night by Sergeant Fry and Constables Harper and Rogers, two Chinese, Sing and Wong Gow, were arrested and booked at police headquarters on a charge of being found in an opium den. The pair will be arraigned in the Police Court this morning.

ROYAL VICTORIA "Should a Husband Forgive?" the old William Fox special, opened at the Royal Victoria Theatre yesterday to packed houses. "Should a Husband Forgive?" may be described as a problem play cast along lines of melodrama. The overworked word "thrilling" seems to belong here. The picture is gripping, tense, but never morbid. It makes an almost universal appeal because of its many angles. The all-star cast includes Miriam Cooper, Mrs. James K. Hackett, Martha Mansfield (famous beauty of the N. Y. Ziegfeld Follies), and James A. Marcus. Mr. Marcus assisted E. A. Walsh in the direction of the picture. The mammoth racing and boxing scenes are the latest word in screen art.

VARIETY THEATRE "His Wife's Money," a new Selznick Picture, with Eugene O'Brien as the star, which is announced as the feature attraction at the Variety Theatre, has many points to commend it to the dyed-in-the-wool followers of motion pictures and theatricals in general. The story is one especially written for Mr. O'Brien by May Tully and DuVernett Rabbell. The production has been under the personal supervision of Ralph Ince, who has written some of the most important pages of motion picture history during the past ten years; as an actor, director and supervising producer, Mr. Ince has long been identified with everything that stands for the best on the screen. "His Wife's Money," it is said, has genuine novelty of plot despite the fact that it deals with conditions of life with which everyone is more or less familiar.

ROMANO THEATRE "It's just too wonderful for any description," says June Caprice says this in real life, but as Mary Hubbard, in her latest Pathe Feature, "In Walked Mary," now showing at the Romano, her sentiments are the same. She plays the role of a runaway on her first visit. "In filming of my latest picture, "In Walked Mary," said June, "I knew just how to act when I came to New York because I had myself experienced all the awe and wonder when I first came here. And not so long ago, either. I was not only struck by the tremendous size of the buildings, which made me think of the days of the cave-dwellers in story books, but the hustle and bustle everywhere. Everyone seemed to have a smile on their face, a sort of welcome. I almost felt as though they were smiling a welcome to me, and I believe I smiled right back at them. In fact, I am sure I did."

COLUMBIA THEATRE If all magazine stories contained such excellent picture material there would be fewer authors carrying a grouch against the motion picture industry," was Director Wm. C Dowlan's compliment to Arthur Somers Roche, who wrote "Loot" for The Saturday Evening Post. "The story as it appeared in the magazine was ideal for film purposes, carrying all the necessary qualities that go to make a motion picture story. These is suspense, mystery, character development, and, above all, fast action with any number of dramatic situations. I would advise all aspiring scenario workers to glance over this well known novel, if they desire a story to use as a model," commented the Universal director, who has produced stories for many of the biggest stars in the movie world. "Loot," now playing at the Columbia Theatre as a Universal feature, was one of the most widely read and discussed stories in America.

PANTAGES THEATRE The warm welcome accorded Miss Blanche Sweet at the Pantages Theatre yesterday, when her newest screen play, "The Deadlier Sex," began its short run for two only, proved that she is indeed a screen favorite. Of course, this is a Bayard Veiller play, which would naturally make it a strong attraction, but, clever as the comedy is, it is Miss Sweet's utterly charming performance of a certain member of the "deadlier sex" that will remain longest in the memory. The story deals with a business man who wishes to amalgamate his holdings with those of Miss Sweet. Miss Sweet is the president of a railroad inherited from her father. She believes in giving her stockholders a show for their money. Our hero is a stock juggler who, with a time-table and a gallon of water, can produce an attractive stock certifi-

DOMINION THEATRE Justifying the claims made for her by the motion picture critics of the country, Alice Lake, Metro's newest star, made her appearance yesterday at the Dominion Theatre, in the picturization of James A. Herne's immortal drama of New England, "Shore Acres." Miss Lake made a tremendous appeal in the role of the daughter of the stern old lighthouse keeper on the coast of Maine, who defied her father in eloping with the man she loved. The haunting witchery of Miss Lake's face, coupled with her superb capacity for portraying dramatic emotion, made the picture a supreme delight to the patrons of the Dominion. It was a deservedly new star in a rattling good picture, and the tense silence which attended the showing showed that the audience liked it.

EXPERTS TO DECIDE CAR FARE DISPUTE

City Requests Montreal Lawyer to Ask Stay of Proceedings to Give Time for Preparation of Case

The city is preparing to place its case before the Board of Railway Commissioners when the application of the British Columbia Electric Railway Company for right to charge seven-cent fare in Victoria is dealt with. Last night the City Council turned over to the Legislative Committee and City Solicitor H. S. Pringle a letter from Mr. W. D. Lighthall, K. C., Montreal lawyer and former secretary of the Union of Canadian Municipalities.

Mr. Lighthall was requested by the Council by wire to ask stay of proceedings until the city could prepare its case.

"Immediately on receipt of this wire," wrote Mr. Lighthall, "I long-distanced Secretary Cartwright of the Board, and found that the application of the company had not yet reached the office of the Board. Furthermore, such an application cannot be taken up at all during August. The Board will hold its first fortnightly session on the first Tuesday in September (unless adjourned a week on account of Labor Day). Ample delay can then be obtained to prepare case. You will understand that, if contested, such a case is primarily a battle between experts. The work of counsel would be based on the work of these experts. I shall—subject to further instructions from you—arrange to obtain you such delay as you may require, and to co-operate as counsel with your Victoria counsel, who might write me for the purpose."

EX-GERMAN WARSHIPS ARRIVE AT NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Five captive warships, once units of the proud German navy, but now humbled and battered relics of a defeated nation, came into New York harbor today. Their arrival marked the beginning of their last year of existence, for when they serve their purpose as exhibits they will be sunk.

They were the dreadnought Ostfriesland, the cruiser Frankfurt, and three destroyers, the V-48, G-102, and S-132. Except the Ostfriesland, they are part of the great fleet which surrendered at Scapa Flow, and were afterwards sunk by their German crews. They were allocated to the United States in the division of captured vessels.

Because it was necessary to tow the Frankfurt and the destroyers, the voyage from British ports occupied more than a month. A stop of a week was made at the Azores, where a mysterious leak in the Ostfriesland was patched up. For the balance of the trip they averaged ten miles an hour.

EXPRESS EMPLOYEES AWARDED INCREASE

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—Eighty thousand American Railway Express Company employees will be awarded increased wages in a decision to be handed down at 8:30 a.m. tomorrow by the Railway Labor Board.

All employees, except 2,500 shopmen, who were benefitted by the 13 per cent increase granted July 20 in the $600,000,000 railway workers' award, will be affected.

The increase, it was learned, is to be on a flat basis to all classes of employees. While it was indicated that the award will not be all asked, it was stated that the amount would exceed that granted to the great majority of railway workers, the Board maintaining that the express employees were not so well paid.

HUNT FOR BANDIT HAS NO RESULT

Bassoff, Murderer of Police Officers at Bellevue, Is Concealed in Woods Near Frank —Called at House for Food

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., Aug. 9.—The third day of active chase for the bandit Bassoff, murderer of police officers Ussher and Bailey, is under way, and though the big squad of police has fairly definitely established that Bassoff is still lying close to the district where Saturday's killings took place, every clue they have run down in the 48 hours has been in vain. They are up against a blank wall. They know Bassoff is there, that he is wounded and weak, and that he comes out each morning in search of food, but they have never been at the right place at the right time.

On Monday afternoon there was an exciting chase for a time, when Mrs. Joe Halloway telephoned from a little farmhouse northeast of Frank that a badly wounded man had called there during the forenoon and had asked for something to eat. She gave him a loaf of bread and a piece of cheese, which he took and disappeared into the woods close by the barn. Mrs. Halloway was alone on the farm at the time. She immediately phoned to Coleman, and police were dispatched from Frank to keep the little wood into which the man had gone under guard until reinforcements arrived. About 2 o'clock the police began to close in on the wood, but, after a thorough search, they found that their man had made his escape. Whether this was the wounded man Bassoff, the police cannot definitely say, but it was the best clue they had today and it came to nothing.

Search of the miners' shacks through the valley is being carried on systematically. There are 28 families of Cossacks in one community, with whom Bassoff is intimate, and he is expected to lie close to them for aid.

Bloodhounds will arrive on the scene tonight. The chances of using them to advantage were reduced considerably today when a drizzling rain fell all day in the pass. One of the mysteries of the man hunt is the entire disappearance of Arloff, the third bandit of the gang. Not the least trace of his movements since he was seen in Coleman last Friday has been found.

TORONTO SUPPRESSES SOAP-BOX ORATORY

TORONTO, Aug. 9.—Socialist orators who were forbidden the street corners during the war, returned to their old haunts at Yonge and Shuter and Yonge and Albert Streets, Saturday and Sunday evenings, but were promptly suppressed by the police. "They were Socialists of the extreme type," said Police Sergeant Lydiatt, who ordered their dispersal, "and were discussing the Winnipeg strike."

Mrs. Joseph Knight, Max Armstrong and George Wishaw were among those who were compelled to fold up their soap boxes and steal silently away from Albert Street last night. George E. Waver, representing the One Big Union, declared they would ask the Police Commissioners to guarantee them their rights under the British constitution.

SEIZURE OF LIQUOR MADE AT PRESCOTT

OTTAWA, Aug. 9.—A special to The Citizen from Prescott, says:

"A very large seizure of liquor, comprising 1000 cases, was made at Prescott on Saturday by Inspector Elisha Adams. The liquor was landed from a steam barge and placed in storage. The value of the shipment amounts to $29,000. This is the largest seizure ever made in the Province of Ontario."

Ginnell to Help De Valera

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Lawrence Ginnell, former member of the British Parliament, now a member of the Irish National Assembly, arrived in new York unostentatiously two weeks ago to assist "president" de Valera in obtaining recognition of the "Irish Republic" in the United States. He was in Parliament from 1906 to 1907.

ARCHBISHOP MANNIX LANDED IN ENGLAND

from the United States, off the Irish coast early in the morning and the commander of the destroyer Wyvern, with two Scotland Yard detectives, went aboard and placed the archbishop under technical arrest. They escorted the prelate, with his secretary, the Rev. Vaughn, to a destroyer, which steamed toward Fishguard. A wireless from the Admiralty, however, reached them en route with instructions to proceed to Pensance, at the extreme southwesterly tip of England. The archbishop was landed there this afternoon. He was accompanied by a representative of Scotland Yard to the home of Canon Wade, and afterward left for London.

London newspapers, except The Morning Post, are unanimous in describing the affair as a "blunder."

PENZANCE, England, Aug. 9.—When asked if he cared to say anything about his mission, Archbishop Mannix replied:

"I have no mission in England; my landing in England is involuntary. I had no desire to go to England, but wanted to go to Ireland. Ireland is my home. I am a native of Ireland, and it is seven years since I left."

The prelate departed on the night train for London.

PLYMOUTH, England, Aug. 9.—"I think the Government are making it worse for themselves than for me. They are putting me to a little inconvenience, but are making themselves very silly."

Thus spoke Archbishop Mannix of Australia to six priests and a few newspaperman who greeted him on his arrival here tonight from Penance.

The Archbishop chatted several minutes, during which he referred without comment to his arrival on the Baltic.

He proceeded for London.

RATE OF EXCHANGE HALTS IMMIGRANTS

MONTREAL, Aug. 9.—The foreign exchange department of the Royal Bank stated today that while many individual European emigrants are prevented from coming to Canada by the adverse rate of exchange, steamers are all loaded to capacity, and Canada is not losing immigration on account of the exchange. Even if exchange were normal, Canada could not get more immigrants than are coming, as there would not be shipping facilities to handle them.

An example of the effect of the exchange situation was given in regard to Italians, who, if they wanted in normal times to bring over 1,000 lire, would receive $190 Canadian currency. Now, however, 1,000 lire will give an Italian only $60, so that he loses two-thirds of his capital.

GERMAN INTRIGUE IS IN EVIDENCE

Documents Secured by French Show Plot in Sarre Valley in Which Berlin Government Is Implicated

PARIS, Aug. 9.—The French Government announces that a remarkable set of documents has been taken by its agent in the Sarre valley from Herr Ollmers, a former deputy in the Reichstag, which outline a programme of agitation and propaganda to be carried out in the Sarre region to break down the administration of the Sarre commission under the League of Nations.

The documents, it is said, reveal that the German Government propaganda bureau is the author of the plan. The announcement says the Sarre commission has taken steps to begin legal prosecution of Ollmers and some of his associates.

The documents show, according to the Foreign Office, that the propaganda bureau, "the Heimatdienst" has been provided with a fund of 5,000,000 marks by the German Government.

I.T.U. Convention

ALBANY, N.Y., Aug. 9.—An important question to be discussed at the fiftieth annual convention of the International Typographical Union, which opened here today, will be a recommendation that no more charters be granted to news writers under the rules of the I.T.U.

Greece and Italy Agree

PARIS, Aug. 9.—An agreement has been reached between Italy and Greece on disposition of the Dodecanese Islands, which has been holding up the signing of the peace treaty with Turkey, according to The Temps today. The treaty will be signed, it is said.

Germany and Russia

BERLIN, Aug. 9. — Dr. Walter Simons, Minister of Foreign Affairs, says Germany is prepared to resume diplomatic relations with Russia when satisfaction is given for the assassination of Gen. Count von Mirbach, German Ambassador to Russia, in Moscow, in 1918.

Evacuation of Lithuania

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Evacuation of Lithuanian territory by Soviet forces will take place in three movements, according to the agreement reached by the Lithuanian and Russian delegates in joint conference at Riga.

Denver Street Cars

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 9.—Full resumption of street car service, which was interrupted by a strike a week ago yesterday morning, waited tonight only for the Denver Tramway Company's announcement of its willingness to re-employ men who struck. The men today offered to return unconditionally.

Home Flight Further Delayed

PRINCE GEORGE, B. C., Aug. 9.—The four United States army airplanes will be delayed here for two or three days more before resuming their flight to Alaska, owing to delay in getting parts from San Francisco. The shipment is expected to reach here tomorrow morning.

Appeal for Armenians

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Resolutions demanding Allied military intervention in favor of Armenians in Cilicia were telegraphed President Wilson today by the American committee for Armenian independence.

Air Mail Service

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—The air mail service tomorrow will make a reconnaissance trip from Chicago to Minneapolis with a specially-built air mail plane, preparatory to opening daily service between the two cities about August 16.

POLISH SITUATION CAUSES DEPRESSION

Stock Prices Go Down Rapidly on Short Selling and Liquidation by Longs—Slight Rally Towards Close

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Developments over this week-end in the foreign situation were responsible for another outpouring of stocks in today's market that carried down prices one to ten points.

Short selling was in great volume, and there was actual liquidation.

The pressure of stocks was so great that many of the leaders touched the lowest figures of the year.

Recoveries of 1 to 4 points were made before the session ended.

Rejection by the Russian-Soviet Government of the Allied terms, and a break of 7c in sterling were the dominant features. Bear operators were successful in covering 500 loan orders, and there appeared to be also a great deal of selling of weakly margined holdings. Creation of new low records for many prominent issues discouraged the bulls, and there was little concerted effort to check the decline until late in the day.

Rumors were circulated that loans were being called on pools. Large inroads were made in the prices of steels, equipments, shippings, oils, coppers, motors and dividend paying railroad stocks. Sterling exchange fell to $3.60¼, and continental bills were shaded to 5 points.

Total sales approximated 1,050,000 shares.

The extensive covering movement was accelerated by the rally in sterling and the easier conditions in the call money market.

Bonds moved irregularly, with some of the convertible issues falling sharply. Domestic and foreign government bonds were slightly lower. Total sales, par value, were $8,075,000. Old U. S. bonds unchanged on call.

Make it Gleam as When New

UNDERNEATH the coat of dust that covers your car, hides a radiant brilliance, that a cleaning and a polishing with O-Cedar will restore to its glistening newness.

Remember how proud you were of your car's appearance the day you bought it. You will be equally proud of it after a little rub with O-Cedar Polish, and delighted to notice that the hard, dry brilliance does not collect dust easily. What little does collect may be removed with a cloth or an O-Cedar Duster.

Best of all is the fact that O-Cedar will prolong the life of the varnish. This feature in itself is a joy to every enthusiastic motorist.

O-Cedar is the Polish that brightens and preserves floors, woodwork and furniture. It is just as effective as a Polish that will prolong the life of the varnish on your motor car.

O-Cedar Polish is in bottles, 25c, and 50c. In cans, $1.25, $2.00 and $3.00. At your Hardware or Grocery Shop.

O-Cedar Polish Mop, without handle, $1.50.

The handle—54 inches in length—is 25c. extra.

GREETINGS TO ALPINE CLUB FROM ENGLAND

Members Have This Year Scaled Many High Peaks—Will Erect Memorial to Fallen Comrades

ALPINE CLUB CAMP, MT. ASSINIBOINE, B.C., Wednesday, August 3.—Lieut.-Col. W. W. Foster, of Vancouver, was elected president of the Alpine Club of Canada at the annual meeting of that organization held this morning at the camp, which is situated this year in a beautiful valley at the foot of Mt. Assiniboine, the second highest peak in the Canadian Rockies. Colonel Foster succeeds Mr. J. D. Patterson, of Woodstock, Ontario, as president of the club. Both have been in camp almost since the day it was opened, and Colonel Foster is one of only three British Columbia section members who have climbed the lofty peak.

The annual election, which, according to the constitution, has to be held during the annual camp in the mountains, resulted as follows: Director, Mr. A. O. Wheeler, of Sidney, B.C., founder of the club; Honorary President, Sir Edmund Walker, of Toronto; Honorary Secretary, Sir James Outram; Secretary, Mr. E. H. Mitchell, of Sidney, B.C.; Treasurer, Major Walker, of Calgary; executive to be composed of the chairmen of the various sections of the club throughout the continent.

Other Business

The meeting commenced at ten o'clock, being held in the big tent which is used to seat the campers during meal-times. It was after one o'clock when the final discussions came to an end, as, although the proceedings were practically unanimous where it came to matters which required balloting, there were many matters to be debated. The retiring president, Mr. J. D. Patterson, especially noted that this was the "Welcome Home Camp" for those members who had served overseas during the late war, about twenty of whom were present, as follows:

Lieut.-Col. D. Bell, Winnipeg; Lieut.-Col. W. W. Foster, Vancouver; Major E. O. Wheeler, R.E., (son of Director A. O. Wheeler), Dehra Dun, India; Dr. A. W. Wakefield, of Montreal (formerly of the Labrador Mission); Captain H. Westmoreland, Victoria; Capt. J. M. Smith, Toronto; Capt. F. S. Thompson, Grand Forks; Capt. E. L. T Taylor, Victoria; Capt. C. W. Gray, Winnipeg; Lieut. Gordon Cameron, Victoria; Miss Kilmer, Toronto; Mr. K. G. McClelland, Galesburg, Ill.; Miss McPhedran, Calgary; Rev. A. H. Sovereign, Vancouver; Miss Burwash, Calgary; Miss Sara Spenser, Victoria; Dr. Hurlburt, Edmonton; Mr. C. B. Reynolds, Victoria; Mr. F. Trant, Toronto; and Dr. A. C. C. Johnston, Calgary.

Twelve members of the Alpine Club of Canada gave their lives in the service of their country during the late war.

Club Memorial

At the meeting it was decided, when the question of the Alpine Club memorial to those of its members who fell in action was debated, that the proposed memorial should take the form of a tablet to be placed in the club house at Banff. On this are to be inscribed the names of all those who made the supreme sacrifice. Any money over and above that subscribed for the purpose of the memorial will be intrusted to the secretary, with instructions to employ it for some utilitarian purpose.

English Greetings

During the meeting it was formally announced that the formal request from the Alpine Club of Canada for affiliation with the Alpine Club (of England) had been acceded to, the statement of the chairman being very cheerily applauded. A letter from Mr. J. N. Collie, of the English organization, to Director A. O. Wheeler, was read, this referring to the fact that mountaineering in the Rockies was destined to even greater fame than at present among climbers the world over.

"I am sure that the bringing together even in a small way of the two clubs will have excellent results, for in the future all the new Alpine work will be done out of Europe, and we look to the younger clubs to forward the good work," said Mr. Collie, in the letter from England referred to.

"Mt. Logan and all the great ice world behind Mt. St. Elias have to be explored, and Canada has yet thousands of virgin summits," concluded the writer.

Mr. A. L. Mumm, of London, England, and vice-president of the Alpine Club of England, brought greetings from that organization, and added his own personal expression of satisfaction that the English and Canadian societies were affiliating. Mr. Mumm has been one of the honored guests of the annual camp at Mt. Assiniboine this year, being accompanied here by his own Swiss guide, Moritz Inderbinen, of Kermatt, Switzerland, who has climbed with him for several decades in all parts of the world. Mr. and Mrs. Julian Osler, of Birmingham, England, are two of the other special guests of the club this year. Mr. Mumm, while addressing the meeting, expressed the hope that all the Alpine Clubs of other overseas Dominions would ultimately become affiliated with the parent organization.

Garibaldi's Charms

The invitation extended by the B.C. Section of the organization to hold the next annual camp (or some subsequent camp) in the Garibaldi Park District, near Vancouver, was noted, and the matter will be considered by the executive when it meets. Meantime the place of the next annual camp is undecided.

The club listened with much interest to the formal report of the Alpine Congress held recently at Monaco, the statement being sent in by Mrs. Julia Henshaw. Mrs. Henshaw, together with Mr. Bryan Harmon, of Banff, were the official delegates from the Canadian Alpine Club at this noted gathering, and the photographs, maps and moving pictures which they presented on that occasion were regarded as among the most striking features of the meeting at Monaco. The films were shown several times by special request, and Mrs. Henshaw had given a very much appreciated lecture on the flora of the Canadian Rockies.

Close In Ajacently

Most of the ardent climbers of the club have been in camp for the past week, and have scaled the majority of the big peaks in the district. But among those who walked the forty miles in from Banff (Mt. Assiniboine camp is three days' march over steep mountain trails, with two intermediate camps for the accommodation of the wayfarer) for the annual meeting were Major Walker, of Calgary, the treasurer of the organization; Director A. O. Wheeler, who had been in Banff since last week; and Major Mitchell, of Toronto. Now that the annual meeting is over and the principal climbing has been completed, the members will gradually leave for home; the exodus, in fact, commenced immediately on the conclusion of the morning's proceedings.

The question of fees came up at the meeting, but this will be voted on again. However, it has been found that it will be necessary to increase the fees for all classes of members owing to the additional cost of sustaining the club.

The returned soldiers who have been the guests of the Club at the annual camp this year have presented to the club house at Banff a set of shower baths in token of their appreciation and gratitude for the welcome home accorded them by the society this summer.

A very definite tribute was given Mr. A. H. MacCarthy, of Wilmer, B.C., by the Club when they requested him at the annual meeting to prepare, in manuscript form, the address which he gave on "American Night." This address dealt with the elementary principles of mountain climbing, and the able manner in which he described the use of the ice-axe, the rope, etc., was considered to be one of the most practical contributions to Alpine work that has been given during any of these social gatherings in the present year. When prepared, the article will be embodied in The Alpine Club Journal, where it will reach the entire membership.

SLOGANS WANTED TO BOOST HOME PRODUCTS

Prizes Are Offered for Publicity Suggestions to Be Used During Six-Day Boom for Victoria-Made Goods

To make everyone in Victoria a confirmed booster for the products of Victoria's factories is the dominant objective of Home Products Week, to be observed in this city commencing on Labor Day, September 6, and ending Saturday, September 11.

During those six days Victoria's manufacturing concerns will make a real effort to impress upon local consumers what they have to offer. They don't propose to limit their campaign with argument as to why, for sentimental reasons, Victoria-made goods should be patronized in preference to the foreign article. Victoria's factories don't have to bid for popularity that way. All they intend to do is to show what they are doing and what they are capable of doing in the way of manufacturing a class A article, and prove that in quality Victoria-made goods are unbeatable. Not only that; they are prepared to demonstrate that from a purely dollars-and-cents standpoint it is good business to buy local goods.

The manufacturers, working largely through the special committee of the Victoria and Island Development Association, headed by Mr. J. C. Macdonald, are laying plans now with a view to having everyone talking and working for Victoria-made goods. The success of the whole plan, it is recognized, rests with the amount of popular interest that can be aroused, and with that idea in mind a slogan competition is to be started, open to everyone, and the committee has arranged to offer prizes for the suggestions accepted. For the best slogan offered $15 will be given; for the second best, $10, and for the third, $5.

Contest Starts at Once

The slogans will form a basis for a part of the publicity campaign in course of preparation, and for that reason the committee wants to have them sent in as soon as possible. The slogan contest will start off tomorrow and the contributions should be sent in to the Victoria and Island Development Association offices, marked "Home Products Slogan Contest." They will be judged by a competent committee probably within the next ten days. The committee wants slogans that are brief and snappy; something that is striking and is likely to attract public enthusiasm as well as express the general spirit of Home Products Week. The winning slogans will be used in various ways, in newspaper and street advertising principally.

"One or two of us could probably sit down and write out a few slogans that would be acceptable," said Mr. Macdonald, in explaining the contest yesterday, "but we feel that among the thousands of Victorians who are interested in this home products movement there is a much better chance of finding the inspiration to think of a slogan that should put real action into the campaign, and action is what we want all through Home Products Week and afterwards. Nominally this is to be merely a six-day affair, but its effect will be more far-reaching than that. With the public support that it deserves, Home Products Week should be of lasting benefit to Victoria industry and the community as a whole."

Toronto Boy Murdered

TORONTO, Aug. 9.—Phillip Goldberg, a lad of eight years, was found dying late Saturday afternoon from knife wounds, in a field near High Park, at the west end of the city, and was dead before medical aid could be brought. His throat was cut almost from ear to ear, and there were two cuts on his head. Dr. J. E. Rowe, who arrived on the scene soon after the boy died, pronounced it a case of murder probably following maltreatment by a degenerate.

PHOTOGRAPHIC SOCIETY PLANS FOR EXPANSION

Has Been Organized for Advancement of Interests of Those Engaged in This Branch of Art

There was a marked improvement in the attendance at the meeting of the Photographic Society of the Provincial Arts and Industrial Institute held in the exhibition room of the Provincial Library last Friday evening and several new members were enrolled. The organizing committee presented a report embracing the draft of the charter and regulations of the society which had received the approval of the parent institute. This empowers the newly-formed branch to hold regular meetings for the advancement of its objects, which are set forth broadly as the creation and cultivation of an interest in photography, consultation among members with a view of improvement of their work and the maintenance of cordiality and camaraderie among themselves. The society is authorized also to hold exhibitions of photographic work, arrange for lectures and addresses on photography in all its branches and to establish a collection of selected photographs for reference and historical record.

The first annual meeting is to be held on September 3, and at this meeting the officers of the society will be elected to hold office for one year. The society will be conducted as a mutual benefit association and has membership fees, other than annual membership in the Arts and Industrial Institute, will be charged. The society has requested the parent Institute to furnish a dark room for demonstratoin purposes, and this will be at the service of the members.

It is the intention of the members to hold a "photographic hike" at an early date. This will take the form of an excursion to some selected location, at which the members will discuss phases of photographic work, such as composition of pictures, the use of stops, lighting of sordens, exposures and the general outdoor work of picture taking.

The society invites all amateur photographers, whether doing their own work or not, to join the association and share in its benefits. Applications for membership should be addressed to Mr. Charles St. Barbe at the Exhibition Room of the Provincial Library. The meetings of the association are open to amateurs, whether members or not. The next meeting will be held on Friday, August 27, when the members will bring selected photographs of their own production for the criticism of their associates.

APPLE ORCHARDS ARE CALLING FOR PICKERS

Ten Weeks' Camp Life With Profitable Employment Is Promised to Girls Willing to Pick Okanagan Apples

The call is going forth once more for young women apple pickers for the Okanagan district. This year, as was the case last year, this work is to be handled through the Women's branch offices of the Provincial Government Employment Bureaus.

It was first as a war measure that young women were induced to take up the fruit picking industry in this Province and all other provinces. As it presents an agreeable outing, an opportunity to make money, although it is not easy work, it is likely to settle into a permanent industry for young women.

A party of fifteen apple pickers will leave Victoria at the end of this week for the Okanagan. During the remainder of the month and the early part of September, groups will continue to leave this city and Vancouver for the fruit districts of the dry belt. The methods of payment will be given upon application to the Employment Bureau.

The greater number of girls live in camps, the larger companies employing up to 50 apple pickers; and will have a matron in charge to see to the comfort of the pickers, and to help in the planning of their recreation.

Contrary to the custom of the strawberry fields, where a short season makes the establishment of a camp impracticable, the season of possibly ten weeks' apple picking makes the establishment of comfortable camps a necessity and an inducement to the pickers to go back a second and a third time.

The girl who is strong and willing, and who will climb the ladders into the trees, and works quickly is the one who is in demand in the apple orchards and who should be advised to go into this industry. The Women's Branch of the Provincial Government Employment Bureau will give any information as to transportation, rates of payment, accommodation supplied, etc., to any would-be apple pickers.

DANCE AT METCHOSIN

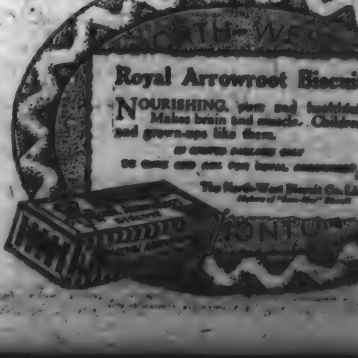

Langford Veterans of Great War Hold Another of Series of Dances Saturday Evening

The Great War Veterans of Langford were hosts at a well-attended dance at Metchosin Saturday night, dancing being continued until the advent of Sunday made an end of the festivities imperative. Members of the committee are to be congratulated on the success of their efforts to make the evening a pleasant one, and thanks are extended to the Ladies' Auxiliary of the association for their helpful work.

This is only one of a series of dances that the G.W.V.A., Langford Branch, has been holding at various points between Victoria and Duncan. The next will be held on Tuesday night, the 10th of August, at Langford, final preparations being in the hands of the Women's Auxiliary of the Langford branch of the association.

Aerial Mail Arrives at Oakland

OAKLAND, Cal., Aug. 9.—Two all-metal airplanes which left New York July 29, to blaze a trail for the transcontinental aerial mail service, landed at an Oakland flying field late Sunday. J. M. Larsen, owner of the planes, delivered to Postmaster Rossbrough a packet of New York mail, constituting what was said to be the first transcontinental aerial mail delivery on record.

"Advertising is to business as steam is to machinery."

Some people say: "I'll advertise when business picks up." That's just about as logical as the farmer waiting till harvest to sow his seeds. The time to advertise is all the time. The small store and the big store will act wisely by making daily use of the classified page, alone or in addition to any other legitimate method of advertising.

AT LAST—An opportunity to buy a piece of acreage in the suburbs at a reasonable price and upon convenient terms.

AN opportunity to go into the business of growing small fruits (including strawberries), and the raising of chickens with the ultimate goal of independence.

THE PROPERTY COMPRISES 200 ACRES OF THE SAYWARD FARM

AND prices range from $125 per acre. One-quarter cash.

WRITE, phone or call for plan—do it today.

THIS is not a subdivision in the bush, nor one of difficult access to the city (it's only 8 miles out). It is a close-in subdivision where values are bound to increase owing to the demand for property in this and other parts of the Saanich district. The demand is keen for both residential and agricultural purposes, for people are realizing that it is by far healthier and cheaper to live outside the city.

WITH the reasonable prices and terms we are asking we expect quick disposition of this land, and the present indications are that it will take but a few weeks to dispose of it.

DON'T forget to write, 'phone or call for plan and any further particulars you may desire.

Ontario's Referendum

OTTAWA, Aug. 9.—That it would be impossible for the Dominion Government to authorise the holding of the referendum in Ontario before April 18, 1921, the date recently fixed by proclamation, except at a cost of half a million dollars to the people, was made clear by Premier Meighen, in replying to a delegation representing the Ontario Referendum Committee, which waited upon him and asked that the voting take place on October 25, the date tentatively agreed upon before the issuance of the formal proclamation.

PUAKO AT LAST REACHES ROADS

Barquentine in Under Canvas, Forty-Three Days From Honolulu — Very Unfavorable Winds Mark Passage

Delayed by a ten-day calm off Honolulu and later forced to buck nor'westers, the barquentine Puako ended a forty-three day passage from the Hawaiian Islands when she sailed into the Royal Roads early yesterday afternoon and dropped anchor. This is an unusually long passage, but Capt. Helms points to the unfavorable winds. During the last week better time was made, 1,400 miles being logged. The barquentine experienced little delay off the entrance to the Straits. She did not utilise the services of a tug, but sailed right to her anchorage in the Roads, under the guidance of Pilot Whiteley. The barquentine made the voyage in ballast.

Whether the Puako will undergo overhaul here before going to the Mainland to load lumber for South Africa is not yet known, as orders have not arrived from the owners.

The Puako entered the limelight when her former master, Capt. Pederson, and his two sons, were tried in New York for manslaughter. The treatment accorded the crew by this trio received a great deal of publicity at the time.

SEALING TREATY NOT LIKELY TO END YET

Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper Does Not Believe U.S. Merchant Marine Act Will Have Any Effect

VANCOUVER, Aug. 9.—That resumption of pelagic sealing in Alaskan waters on the Pacific Coast is not likely until the treaty made between Great Britain, the United States, Russia and Japan in 1911 shall have expired, is the opinion of Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, who as Minister of Marine and Fisheries, represented Canada at the treaty of arbitration at Paris in 1892-1893, where the dispute was settled regarding the charges made by the United States that Canadian sealing vessels were poaching in American waters.

Recently the point has been raised that the resumption of pelagic sealing on the Pacific Coast is among the possibilities which may be effective in the abrogation of commercial treaties called for in the United States Merchant Marine Act. Sir Charles, while he confessed that he had not recently studied the act, affirmed that the treaty was hardly one which could be abrogated under this heading, and he could not see how the act would have any effect on the agreement as made between the four nations. Sir Charles added the information that under the treaty the United States were to decide when the seal herds would be ready for killing, and kill them themselves, dividing the profits among the other countries. There was to be no pelagic sealing north of 35 degrees north latitude. In regard to Russia's claims, although she has fallen from her former status as a nation in the eyes of the world, Sir Charles said that she would have to be recognized as a participant to the treaty now just as in 1911 when it was made.

HAS SMALL SHIPMENT

Three hundred and ten tons is all the freight the Tajima Maru will have aboard her for this port when she ties up at the Outer Docks within a couple of days. A wireless received yesterday morning by the local agents stated that the big N.Y.K. freighter would arrive on Wednesday morning. The Toyama Maru is the name of the third T-class freighter to be put on the North American run by the N.Y.K. She is not due here until the middle of October.

WILL NOT CALL HERE

The Blue Funnel liner Eurydamus, shortly due from the Old Country via Panama Canal, will not call here, but will go straight on to Vancouver, where she is scheduled to arrive on August 15. She will go from there to Puget Sound.

The Tyndareus sails outbound from the Sound for the Orient on August 24.

MATTAWA IN DRYDOCK

The new C.P.O.S. freighter Mattawa went into the Esquimalt drydock on Sunday for cleaning and painting, and also to have a new stern tube put in.

The big boat has just arrived on this Coast from the United Kingdom, making the long voyage by way of the Mediterranean and the Orient. She will be operated by the C.P.O.S. in the freight trade between British Columbia and the Orient.

ARIZONA ON FRIDAY

The Arizona Maru, which is making her initial voyage since being placed on the North American service by the Osaka Shosen Kaisha, is to arrive here on Friday, latest advices state. She has 186 tons of tea and 240 tons of general cargo for Victoria. Her passengers include 12 first class and 31 steerage passengers for this port, and 25 first class and 121 steerage for Seattle.

DELAYED HERE

The steel freighter Robin Goodfellow, loaded with 8,300 tons of coal for Rio de Janeiro, arrived off here late Sunday night, dropped her pilot, and proceeded out. Before reaching Race Rocks she turned back and dropped anchor in the Royal Roads. A defective steering gear is said to be the reason, and it is understood that instructions from Seattle were being awaited.

ENGINE CREW QUIT

Wooden Steamer Snoqualmie Reached Port Townsend From Union Bay Without Men

PORT TOWNSEND, Aug. 9.—Bound for Sydney with lumber loaded at Mukilteo, the big wooden steamer Snoqualmie arrived last night from Union Bay, where she took on bunker coal. While at the coaling port her engine crew quit with the exception of the engineers, the men leaving their clothing and other effects aboard the vessel. Not wishing to be detained in the British Columbia port, Capt. Engelbrecht sailed for this place, the engineers working overtime to keep the ship going. The men had no complaint to make against the steamer or her officers, and their desertion is attributed to liquor, which was plentiful in the coaling station. The master went to Seattle today and expects to have men here to take the places of the deserters in time for her to sail Monday afternoon.

WHALES DIVERTED SHIP FROM COURSE

Empress of Japan Avoids School of Mammals Fighting Among Themselves—Liner Made Fast Run Across

A school of whales, members of which were engaged in battle among themselves, forced the Empress of Japan to deviate from her course in order not to be drawn into the brawl. Passengers lined the rail to witness the combat and cameras were quickly put into action by many.

Completing one of the fastest Pacific voyages within her history, the liner Empress of Japan tied up at the Outer Docks at noon yesterday from Oriental ports. She made the run from Yokohama to Victoria in 11 days and 14 hours, experiencing fine weather on the way across. The ship did not reach William Head until an hour after her expected time, dropping anchor in the bay at 10 o'clock.

While the Japan was on her way from Hongkong to Yokohama a Chinese stoker, twenty-five years of age, died of apoplexy, presumably from the intense heat below. His body was taken off at Yokohama and shipped back to Hongkong on the Montengle.

Some 500 coolies, en route for Cuba to work in the sugar plantations, came across on the Empress. There were 764 passengers all told, 168 of these being first class, 44 second class and the remainder steerage.

Among the passengers was Mr. J. Joseph, director and manager of J. Lyons & Co., the well-known firm which operates restaurants and tearooms throughout England. Mr. Joseph is on a combined business and pleasure trip which will take him around the world.

Mr. F. M. Sylvester, of Vancouver, formerly managing director of the Granby Consolidated M., S. & P. Company, returned on the Japan from the Orient. He made a round trip on the vessel, being out for a holiday only.

LOCAL BOAT FIRST TO PAY NEW LEVY

Sum of Five Cents Is Victoria Fishing Boat's Contribution to the Vancouver Harbor Board's Coffers

VANCOUVER, Aug. 9.—When Ling Choy, a British-born Celestial, who operates with more than ordinary success his little fishing boat, the Lausel Point, appeared at the harbor board offices last week and proffered the magnificent sum of five cents as the amount due the commission under the new harbor tariff, he had the distinction of making the first report in connection with the new order of things. His inward cargo consisted of one ton of codfish, the tariff on which is exactly five cents.

In discussing the harbor tariff, which charges he has been appointed to collect, Mr. Arthur Heathorn, superintendent of the government wharf, stated that things were lining up even better than expected. He says that the spirit of co-operation being shown between the shipowners and shipping men generally and the harbor board representatives is everywhere in evidence. There has not been the least bit of trouble despite the outspoken opposition to the new tax.

During the week reports from several hundred craft have been received at the offices of the harbor board. These range from the smallest fishing smack to the big freighters. The majority of these are on the credit list, but there is a large number of small craft owned by Orientals and other foreigners who pay as they go. In the case of vessels like the Princess Patricia, which takes daily trips, reports of cargo are brought to the harbor board offices twice a week; in the case of the Grand Trunk Pacific boats, on the completion of each voyage. Cash remittances will be made to the harbor board at the end of each month.

It is expected that by the end of the week the full staff of the collection department will be lined up and the system completed.

Will Load Ties

VANCOUVER, Aug. 9.—To take on a shipment of 2,000,000 feet of railway ties, part of an order of 40,000,000 feet which the Green Star Line has secured, the big freighter Antinous, Capt. Branker, reached port on Sunday night and docked at the Government wharf. This is the maiden voyage of the big vessel, which loaded the remaining part of the 5,000,000 feet at Puget Sound ports. The coming of the Antinous to this port constitutes the arrival of the first craft of the Green Star Line to Vancouver.

A gasoline engine-driven dynamo that is entirely automatic in its action is attracting attention in England.

TRAVELS EAST TO CONFER ON SHIP

Capt. Troup, Manager of B.C. Coast Steamship Service, Will Meet Company Heads Over Proposed New Steamer

Capt. J. W. Troup, manager of the B. C. Coast Steamship Service, is on his way East, to Montreal, to confer with the C.P.R. heads there over the letting of a contract for the new passenger steamer which is to be built as an addition to the present fleet in British Columbia waters. Captain Troup left Vancouver yesterday morning, eastbound.

The subject of the new ship came up afresh a few weeks ago, when tenders were asked for from British Columbia yards. It is understood that Yarrow's, Ltd., the Harbor Marine Company, Coughlan's and Wallace's, have submitted prices. The loss of the Princess Sophia has so reduced the coastwise fleet that should the B. C. Steamship Service have another vessel wrecked or laid up for any reason it would find the service crippled. A definite decision in the matter of the new vessel is expected from the conference in the East.

TO SIGN ON CREW HERE

The barquentine Alta was scheduled to leave Genoa Bay at 11 o'clock yesterday morning in tow for the Royal Roads where she will lie at anchor until a crew has been obtained. She carries a cargo of lumber for South Africa.

RUPERT YARD NOW SHOWING PROGRESS

Many Men Arrive at Northern Port to Work in Shipbuilding Plant—Machinery Is Arriving

PRINCE RUPERT, Aug. 9.—Much better progress is being made on the shipbuilding at the local yards since the four derricks have been installed for handling the plates and other heavy steel. Approximately 100 men arrived in the city last week and are at work there. A double shift is working in the machine shop and everything seems to be humming.

The bulkheads are all completed and the lower deck plates are being put in place. In all probability the tanks will be tested in about two weeks' time by the Government inspector and the representative of the British Corporation.

The machinery for the new ships is commencing to arrive. The boilers are completed at the Vulcan Iron Works, Vancouver, and the engines are practically completed at the works of John Inglis Company at Toronto. The main shafting is already on the ground and part of the supply of anchors and cables are here from England.

Number 1 hull is the most advanced. That is the one to the south.

It was the fact that ships were being built here that made it possible for the Prince George to be repaired at this port. It was done in 115 working hours, the men in some cases working all night.

The Time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish High Water from Low Water. Where blanks occur in the tables, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The Height is in feet and tenths of a foot, above the average level of lower Low Water.

Esquimalt—To find the depth of water on the sill of the drydock at any tide, add 18.9 feet to the height of High Water as above given.

B.C. FIR REQUIRED FOR DECKING PURPOSES

Action of Lumber Interests Here Results in Specifications for Dominion Marine Construction Being Changed

As a result of the strong representations made by the fir operators of the Province, backed up by the Forest Branch of the Provincial Department of Lands, a change has been ordered in the specifications under which lumber for decking purposes for use on the Dominion Government steamships are supplied.

Heretofore Southern pine has been specified for decking, and several hundred thousand feet have been used for that purpose in the construction of the ships being built for the Canadian mercantile marine.

Strong representations were made to Ottawa, and the statement was made that because some fir furnished in the early contracts had not been properly seasoned and had proved unsatisfactory the Southern pine had been ordered substituted. The lumbermen investigated and found that the lumber complained of had been kiln dried. The new specifications call for British Columbia fir, weather seasoned for at least four months.

LIFTS VERY SMALL

The total catch of spring salmon in the traps between here and Sooke this year has only amounted to about thirty per cent of that of last year. Few springs are being caught now, but some sockeyes are being brought in. It is stated that the lifts of these fish are better than expected from an off year. Both the Empire Cannery at Esquimalt and the Sooke Harbor Fishing & Packing Company's cannery at Sooke are packing. The latter plant is also mild curing.

TO USE TEES AGAIN

The C.P.R. freighter Tees will go into commission at the end of the week after having undergone very extensive repairs at the Victoria Machinery Depot. She has had a number of frames and plates renewed, in addition to considerable other work. The vessel will carry freight to northern British Columbia points.
